Obituary

Linda Osborne

A young Acton area resident, Linda Osborne, died at her RR4, Acton home Oct. 17. She was 26.

Mrs. Osborne grew up on the family farm on the Third Line and received her education in Dublin and Speyside Public Schools and Acton High School. She was a member of Trinity United Church and taught Sunday School there during her high school years. She had also earned her Provincial Honours in 4-H Home-making club work.

She married Herbert Osborne in 1974 and they lived in Toronto for a short period prior to building their home on the Third Line. She was employed by Northern Telecom in Weston for six years.

Mrs. Osborne is survived by her husband, and infant daughter, Rebecca Lynne. She also leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kirkwood, RR4, Acton; sisters, Marilyn Cox, BH3, Milton, Lois Henderson, Thelma Pettipher and Ruth French, and brother John, all of RR4, Acton.

Rev. Chuck Beaton conducted the funeral service from Trinity United Church, Acton, on October 20 and interment followed in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

Obituary

Emma Cole

Long-time Acton resident, Emma Cole, died in the Cher Nursing Home, Acton, on Oct. 28. Miss Cole was 89.

The daughter of William Cole and Margaret Reid, she was born on the family farm on the Sixth Line and moved to Frederick Street, Acton, more than 40 years ago.

She was a member of Knox Presbyterian church and was active in the Alert Evening Auxiliary.

Miss Cole leaves one sister, Minnie Kirkwood in Halton Centennial Manor, and many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by two sisters, Agnes McKay and Annie McLean and a brother Fred Cole.

Rev. John Robertson conducted the funeral service from the Shoemaker Funeral Home, Acton on Oct. 30 and interment followed in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

A LITTLE GIRL'S DREAM

Kim Clark, 5, of Pennington Cres., Georgetown shows her mother and little brother, Stephen, the doll on display in the window at Langcraft. The doll, her 16 outfits, four-poster bed, wardrobe and vanity will be raffled off Dec. 18 by Xi Delta Beta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi with the proceeds going to the Georgetown branch of the Canadian Cancer Society and to cerebral palsy. The doll's clothes were made and donated by chapter members while Michael Mooney, husband of a member, made the furniture.
