

FLASHBACK

In this week's Sports Flashback, we are looking for you to tell us the history of this sports picture. It was found in the archives of the Herald with no real identification. All that was scratched on the back was the Ashgrove tug of war team, and the Jan. 12, 1969 date. A quick look back to the January 12, 1969 issue revealed nothing. So, we are soliciting your help in identifying the picture and the team members. Please send response to the Herald, c/o Sports Week. When the answer is revealed we will follow with a story.

Junior Reb netters lose quarter final game against Acton

By CAYLEY GRESSWELL
The Junior girls basketball team suffered a defeat on Monday, against Acton high school in a quarter final game of the North Halton championships.

Host Acton came up with an excellent game, leading from the beginning, with the final score 60-15 for Acton.

The feeling of one of the coaches, Betty Tamas, was that "We were completely outplayed right from the start; the Acton team was a better team and had more experience. Acton played better in the basics, passing, dribbling, and shooting. They didn't do anything fancy, just played consistently."

The Georgetown team played well, not their best this season, but nothing to be ashamed of. The Rebels team was a little disheartened with the final score though, and it is felt that if the team had played their best, they might not have beaten Acton, but the score would have been much more acceptable.

During this game, the whole team played well, although no one was outstanding. The coaches and the team are pleased that they made it to the quarter finals, as the junior team is consisted of quite a few grade nine students and some girls who have never played basketball before.

The team consists of Rosemary Gale, Maureen Gale, Cindy Pettibone, Terri Lamb, Barb McKeeman, Suzanne Abray, Kris Walters, Trudy Hawkins, Arlene Maitland, Isabel Jackson and team captain Cathy Dobson.

The team was coached by Mrs. Betty Tamas, and Toni Spina.

First curling club spiel Saturday

By JUNE CARSON
Curling is in full swing these days at North Halton, with all the sections having their scheduled games underway. There are still openings for 30 curlers on Monday evening and eight-10 curlers on Thursday evening - so come on fellas, and join in on the fun.

For the ladies, keep November 17th free for the Glad Robinson Spiel. It's always been a favourite, and talent is definitely not a prerequisite - only a good sense of sportsmanship and a yen for good fun.

Another date to note on the calendar is November 24th - Grey Cup Spiel - for the ladies and the gents, certainly not one to be missed.
