

Richardson tops bowlers for YBC senior division title

With over 100 competing, Grant Richardson from Georgetown Bowl has started to establish his supremacy in the Young Bowling Club's senior division, by handily taking top place in the Senior Mixed Tournament.

Lenard Fisher, also from Georgetown, in his first try, started to lead the pack with 296 in the first game but after Grant's 353 in the second he could not keep up the pace. Grant's games were 268-353-224-221-262 (1328), an average of 265.

Second place went to Tom Elbourne from Avondale Lanes, Bramalea, with games of 238-312-276-298-209 (1243).

The surprise qualifier was Bill Pryor from Guelph, who started near the bottom and wound up with games of 151-180-323-296-284 (1234).

The three men and three women will form the local team at the provincial finals.

In the girls' division, the Georgetown contingent did not fare so well in Guelph with Roberta Burke (5th) placing the highest.

Five Trophies to Georgetown

In the regional finals of the Master-Junior Tournament, the Georgetown group walked away with five trophies.

The team of Chas. Weatherall, Carole Duguay with Master Joan Archibald took third place. Julie McCorry took the high single flat score trophy and Lori Brading won the pins over average trophy.

Georgetown also was next in fourth and fifth place. The team of Michael Ball, Kelly McCorry, and Master George Archibald and David Chaplin, Lori Brading with Master Bruce Clarke.

New winners emerge Friday in Golden Age bowling league

As the Golden Age bowling season progresses, more bowlers are coming into their own and challenging the early season winners. Del Wallace is back in the men's winner circle as is Ernie Miller. Nora Tuck and Elizabeth Castle make first time appearances at the top of ladies' divisions.

Wallace overcame an always strong Jim Zebedee in the men's high single flat standings, when Friday's results were tabulated. He rolled up a 240 score, nine ahead of Zebedee's 231. He also won the high single with handicap, with a 271. Ernie Miller was not far behind with a 258.

Zebedee came back to top the other gentlemen in the high triple flat category, knocking down 651 worth of pins. Again Miller came up with a second place finish scoring 597. However Miller did pick up a win in the high triple with handicap. This time he edged out Jim Wilson 684-675.

Nora Tuck had the hottest of ladies' hands winding up the afternoon with top scores in three of the four divisions. Her 188 in the high single flat was 15 points ahead of Ethel Hardman at 173. And in the high single with Handicap she had a seven point edge over Mary Booth, 243-236. She then easily won the high triple flat 459-425 over Barbara Reyce.

But, it was left to Elizabeth Castle to keep Tuck from a clean sweep. With a 639 score Castle beat Tuck's 624 to win the high triple with handicap.

In the overall team standings, the 74's remain on top with 42 points while the Corner Pins moved in front of the Expos for second place and the Hall and Halls moved from sixth to fifth place trading places with the Slow and Easy team.

Standings going into Friday's action are: 74's 42, Expos 39, Corner Pins 36, Sluggers 33, Half and Half 32, Slow and Easy 31, Blue Jays 28, Rolling Pins 27, Friendly Five 26, Raiders 22, and Six Dolls 20.
