Frosty The Snowman

Frosty the Snowman, was a jolly happy soul,
With a corn cobbled pipe and a button nose
and two eyes made out of coal.
Frosty the Snowman, is a fairy tale they say;
he was made of snow but the children know,
how he came to life one day.
There must have been some magic in that old silk hat they found;
for when they placed it on his head,
he began to dance around.
If Frosty the Snowman, was alive as he could be, and the children say, he could laugh and play, just the same as you and me.
Frosty the Snowman knew the sun was hot that day, so he said let's run and we'll have some fun, now before I melt away. Down to the village, with a broomstick in his hand: running here and there and all around the square, saying catch me if you can.
He led them down the streets of town, right to the traffic cop; he only paused a moment when he heard him holler stop!
For Frosty the Snowman had to hurry on his way; but he waved goodbye saying don't you cry, I'll be back again some day.
Thumpy Thump Thump, Thumpy, Thump Thump, look at Frosty Go!
Thump Thump Thump, Thumpety
Thump Thump, over the hills of snow.

It Came Upon The Midnight Clear (Key of B Flat)

It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold: -
"Peace on earth, good-will to men,
From heaven's all-gracious King!"
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er the weary world;
Above its sand and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wings,
And ever o'er its babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

But with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The love song which they bring;
O hush the noise, ye men of strife
And hear the angels sing.

And ye, beneath life's crushing load
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow,
Look now! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing;
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

For, lo! The days are hastening on,
By prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the Age of Gold.
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world gives back the song
Which now the angels sing.
