

Glad Robinson on hand to present her trophy

By JUNE CARSON
A fine time was had by the ladies at the Glad Robinson Spiel on Saturday past. It was an ideal time for all of us who curl at various times through the week to get together, which was very evident by the constant friendly chatter both on the ice and off. Particularly endearing to the long time members of the club was to have Glad Robinson herself on hand to do the honors of presenting the trophy.

There were two separate draws organized. The winner of the early draw was Alice Fraser's rink of Mary Ellen Bridge's, Teresa Smith and Margery Mundy. The runner-up was Ellen Burn's rink of Jane Burrows, Dynese Griffiths and Mary Courtney.

HIGHEST TOTAL

In the late draw, the winner was Julie White's rink of Frances Wild, Erna Gibson and Dot Burgess. The runner-up was Marg O'Flaherty's rink of June Carson, Billie Webb and Barbara Fitzgerald. Julie's team had the added prestige of having the highest total score for both draws.

Another prize was awarded to the team having the highest single score which was awarded to Bette Broomhead's rink of Sherrill Collins, Doris DeHueck and Kathy Burt.

So much for days gone by - now to the days to come. Grey Cup fever is already in the air, so really get into the swing of it by coming out to the mixed spiel on Saturday, November 24th, followed by a dance to the fine music of Dave Smallwood.

A word to all the competitive curlers - when you enter a rink to visit neighboring clubs, I'd really like to hear about how you do so I can share the results with everyone. We are proud of your representing all of us at North Halton.

Glad Robinson, centre, proudly presents the first ladies' intra-club curling bonspiel trophy of the year, named after her, to the winning rink Saturday. Kneeling in front on the left is Julie White and on the right is Frances Wild. Standing on the left is Dorothy Burgess and Erna Gibson on the right.

Sweeping out the house was never this easy at home, these ladies must be saying Saturday during the Glad Robinson Intra-club bonspiel held out at North Halton Golf and Country Club.
