'Hi Larry send money Dave's in jail'

With the Grey Cup hangover now starting to subside, some clear thoughts on Canada's most patriotic national event are available. As a sportsman and a sport reporter I would be remiss if I didn't comment.

Although some people, both men and women alike, probably took a long hike during the festival extravaganza on television Sunday, most of us found it hard to ignore or get away from. So, why not say a few words. Not the ones most commonly heard and read about the game but some which don't make the headlines or reports of the game itself.

I watched the first half at home, in the comfort of my apartment. Our ad manager Bob Walker and my brother Paul joined me as we watched and cheered for the underdog Montreal Allouettes. It was great to see them come back from a 7-0 deficit to within one point at the end of the first half.

It was almost as exciting as being at a Grey Cup. The only one I was ever at was in 1974 in Hamilton, when the Ti-Cats won it over the Saskatchewan Rough Riders. Gord Barswell, here in Georgetown, was playing on the losing side that year. The feeling in the Ivor Wynne stadium that day was that rookie sensation Chuck Eatley could become the new mayor of that city, as the post was up for grabs at that time. There is no greater feeling than winning the championship at home. And, for football crazy fans in Hamilton, it almost shut the city down that cold day in November. Harold Ballard would have loved it.

WORKED UP APPETITE

This year I worked up an appetite in the first half and decided to join a party at the McGibbon Hotel. Owners Nick and George Markou had invited me to drop in to watch the game. Our happy trio dropped into the hotel and were just in time for the excellent buffet provided and catered by Jesse the cook. What a spread! Enough for a football team, or its fans.

The room was full of supporters from both teams and a few just out for a good time, as is the case at most football games. One woman was heard to comment on a crushing tackle, "Give em a hug."

On the screen fans at Olympic stadium were just as rambunctious. They were prepared for the chilly weather, with everything from blankets to cowboy hats and thermoses. Many carried banners like the one that said "Hi Larry, send some money, Dave is in jail."

All in all the best team probably won and the East triumphs again. It could have been looked upon as a victory for the up-and-coming Peter Lougheed, over the slowly sliding Rene Levesque. Such are the national tones of this great Canadian game.

We missed the actual presentation of the Grey Cup, the channels on the two television sets were changed to the NFL games of the day.

SWEDISH SOCCER

The regular meeting of the Georgetown Youth Soccer League Nov. 29, is expected to give its support to a team of selects to go to a tournament in Sweden this summer.

President Alex Tough says the group has already received sanction from the Ontario Soccer Federation, to represent this country in the multi-country tournament. It will be held in Hagfors Sweden in June.

The trip results from a visit last year by Hagfors soccer and hockey teams. The invitation to Sweden was extended at that time. The local team will take part in the Uddholm Cup, part of a summer festival.

The Youth Soccer League will be requested to pay the $500 entry fee for the team. Other expenses will be raised by the team.

BOB DANIELL

Belated congratulations to Bob Daniell, who established himself as the premier competitive Master runner in North America. Daniell topped 160 other Canadian and American cross country runners aged 35-70, to take the honours at Sunnybrook Park in Toronto a week ago Saturday.

Last year he finished the same race in third spot in Seattle. This year he won in 34 minutes and 31 seconds. Daniell had trained hard for the race continuing his run to the GO station, on the train to Toronto, off and run to work and reverse on the way home.

Other local participants were Agnes Daniell, his wife, Caroline Murray and councillor Marilyn Serjeantson.
