Hockey Heritage Dinner

Tues., Feb. 12, 1980
Holy Cross Auditorium

LOCKER ROOM

We've learned a lot about dances and are about to present a terrific night out for everyone.

Keep this date open -
SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1980. John Clark (NFE) is running this one and it sounds great. Entertainment will be by DAVE SMALL-WOOD. Tickets are available now - but there's a limited quantity so get them early.
John can be reached at (Bus) 877-5211 or you can get your tickets at the arena.

The Raider's Men's Nite is FRIDAY, FEB. 1, 1980.
Something for everyone:
comedian, exotic dancer, casino, elimination draw, refreshments, food, and a lot of fun. More spectacular than ever before and only $6.00.
The tickets are being printed this week!

Congratulations are in order for Peter and Mary McDuffe who have just received a new son, Daniel Richard was born in Guelph General Hospital at 8:33 a.m. and weighed in at 7 lb. 8 oz.
'Anybody have some teeny little skates?'

Mark this date on your calendar - TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1980. At this year's annual banquet we have 2 feature speakers - Lanny McDonald and Bobby Baun. Plenty of fun, photos and autographs. Last chance to turn in nominations for the Annual Hockey Heritage Award. Please mail your nomination to Garfield McGil-vray, 8 Guelph St., Georgetown, L7G 3Y9 on or before Dec. 7, 1979.

Welcome back!

Many people have noticed that Bob Hooper (Pres.), Jack Handy (G.M.), and Stan the man fantastic were all missing during the Nov. 23 Port Elgin game. Bob and Jack mentioned something about a big defenceman in the Barbado's.
(That's hockey not cricket you guys) and Stan claims that he got a "capital" idea in Washington.
Welcome back!!

The Pres says...

Hello Hockey Fans!

The team has now been on the ice for nearly 3 months and as we anticipated some changes are being made at present. Every year there is a period of trial and error until we feel that we have the best possible team available to us, it is always our objective to try for a championship combination.

This year is appears that the Canadian championship format will be the one enjoyed by so many people 3 years ago, that is instead of a tournament there will be individual playoff series between Northern Ontario and the east with the final series between east and west being played in the west.

The Raiders at present are playing just slightly under 500 hockey but we hope that during December we will reach this objective.

At present the Raiders have 3 major fund raising projects in the works: 1. The hockey pool with tickets at $5.00 and 3 winners at each Raider game. 2. A fun dance on January 19, 1980 at $5.00 per couple. 3. A men's stag on February 1, 1980 which is also an elimination draw.

Hope for your support.
See you at the rink!

Bob Hooper
