'We don't take no second place'

By CAYLEY GRESSWELL.
Thursday's swim meet against Lord Elgin High School had promised to be very exciting, but the Georgetown team found it a great letdown, as they completely outswam their rivals, winning with a score of 212-78.
Lord Elgin and GDHS have had very close competitions for the past three years, and the final has always been between these two teams for the Halton and Peel-Halton championships.
Georgetown coach, Tom Adams, feels that GDHS has a "stronger team this year", with an outstanding girls' team but, that alone doesn't account for the degrading loss of the Lord Elgin team. Lord Elgin lost many of its better swimmers to graduation and is therefore in a "rebuilding" stage, whereas when swimmers graduate from Georgetown, it always seems that there's a stronger group of rookies moving up.

Georgetown completely dominated this meet, winning 26 of the 34 events, and taking all the points on 11 events.
Addressing the team after the meet, coach Adams said, "I think everyone showed a lot more spirit and enthusiasm than last week, and I saw quite a few instances where our level of fitness pulled us ahead. I think we can be proud of ourselves!"

The stars of this meet, who won all three of their events were, Suzanne Abrey, Brenda Braund, Beth Stewart, Kevin Thompson, Eric Elsen, and Cheryl Thompson. Winning two events were, Marylynn Morrow, Steve Crowe, Len Fisher, Allison Macdonald, Rick Eastwood, and Erin McIntyre. Also placing first was Gord Payne, Andy Bigg, Liz Ramsey, Don Elsen, Debbie Newman, Heather Michie, Karen Coleman, Kim MacLeod, James Bydevate and Rick Bourassa.

Coach Adams later commented that he felt "that the competition wasn't quite as stiff as last week", but that he was "pleased with where we are in the season."
Every year the team has a "molto", this year it is "We don't take no ... second place," let's hope that remains true for the rest of the season.
