YOUTH BOWLING

Since the "4 Steps to Stardom" qualifying rounds begin with the start of the new year, some bowlers have finally realized that time is too, too short and are asking for extra coaching. These few bowlers are ensuring their edge over other bowlers and increasing their odds of winning. Others, must be depending on luck, rabbit's feet, etc.

Blue Jays move in front of Expos

Who ever coined the phrase 'the older you get the better you get', must have been a bowler. Golden Age bowlers are testament of that here in Georgetown. For weeks now the Friday afternoon seniors' bowling league has had a variety of winners producing consistently high scores. Each week there is usually a close struggle for the leading points position. This week was no exception. Grant Real had his hands full with Ernie Miller in both the mens' high single flat and the high triple flat. Real managed to edge Miller in the single by two points, 251-249. Miller then came back to tie Real in the triple at 642.

Miller wasn't deterred by the close but no cigar games, as he went on to capture the handicap divisions. In the single with handicap he bowled over Del Wallace 280-264 then easily won the triple with handicap 735-661 over Al Zeravlev.

Anne Nicholson, Kay Fryer and Marg Davidson were the ladies' winners this week. Nicholson was the high single and high triple winner. She scored a 249-195 win over 675-500 win over Marg Davidson in the triple flat.

Fryer also beat Davidson, in the high single with handicap. She outscored her 251-256. Davidson got her revenge winning the high triple with handicap 704-656 over Agnes Dobbie.

The Blue Jays moved in front of the Expos, in the bowling league statistics this week. (If only it could happen in baseball). The results show the 747's still on top with Corner Pins just behind at 58, Rolling Pins 53, Blue Jays 49, Expos 48, Slow and Easy 47, Half and Half 44, Sluggers 42, Six Dolls 37, Friendly Five 36 and the Raiders 30.

Young racqueteters

Glen Britton defeated brother Gary to win the first annual Georgetown Racquet Club's Junior Flight over the weekend. He overcame 32 other young boys and girls aged 11 to 20.

The 14-year old was the winner of the A flight. Richard Norris defeated Doug Reid to win the B flight. Lloyd Newman was the C flight winner over finalist John Catling and Todd Collins defeated Pat Brooker to take the D flight.
