

'I'll leave cookies' - Sherie

Dear Santa,
My name is Robbie Lockhurst I am 7 years old. I am in grade 2. I like to play hockey. I would like to have a Darth Vader Space Station, some star wars people, a double holster deputy set and an X-Wing Fighter. I have been a good boy most of the time. How is Rudolph. I am going to leave him a carrot and I will leave you a cookie and some milk.

Merry Christmas
Robbie, Acton

Dear Robbie:
Rudolph is just fine and he thanks you for the carrot you are going to leave. I will try to bring you what you have asked for. Merry Christmas.

Love Santa

Dear Santa,
How are you and Mrs. Claus. You must be really busy at this time of the Christmas season. Thank you for the lovely gifts you left me last Christmas, this year I would like a new red dress and fuzzy barber shop. I've been a real good girl. I go to kindergarden now and I really like it. Please bring my dad a zodiac necklace and mommy a pair of slippers. That's all for now Santa, oh, yes please don't forget the other boys and girls. I'll leave cookies for you on the kitchen table. And also carrots for Rudolph and the other reindeer. Love and kisses to you and Mrs. Claus.

Love and kisses

A FESTIVAL OF FASHION

Acton High School was the setting for the third fashion spectacular organized by Phyllis Jamieson of Gayna Fashions.

Sponsored by the Theta Phi Sorority, the show, entitled All That Glitters, featured more than a hundred outfits from tiny tots' to Indies' fashions.

Children's wear was supplied by Toddlers to Teens, while Gayna Fashions supplied the adults items. The models displayed a number of Paris designs as well as those created by Mrs. Jamieson.

Jewelry for the show as supplied by Sara Coventry and senior citizens attending it received potted plants.

Entertainment during the intermission was supplied by Ivy Martin and her staff who did a disco routine and by Jill Morris who did acrobatics.
