

Midget hockey tourney here Jan. 8-13 at Alcott

Plans are well underway for the 16-team minor hockey support group's midget tournament the second week of the new year. Brian Turner, tournament chairman, says there is a waiting list to get into this 14th annual. It will go from Tuesday Jan. 8 through Sunday the 13th.

Teams from Mississauga, Guelph, Oshawa, Stratford, Milton, Streetsville, Stoney Creek, Bellville, Port Credit, Bomanville, Salt Creek, Bramalea, Ottawa and Brantford will join the host tri-county Sunny Acre major midgets from Georgetown and our four-town midgets.

Defending champions Ottawa Voyageurs and consolation champs Salt Creek will be back. This tournament will mark the 12th time the Sunny Acre team has participated.

Teams to tournaments

Several local hockey teams will be participating in hockey tournaments abroad over the holiday period. The bantam league players have confirmed their attendance at three.

The major bantams will be in Simcoe for a five game knockout starting the day after Christmas. The four-town bantams will be going to Strathroy between Christmas and New Years. And, the minor bantams will be in Milton for the Eager Beaver tournament at the same time.
