

RETIREMENT PARTY

The staff at Park School held a retirement dinner last Wednesday for Janelle Fritz Conle, who is retiring after 15 years at the school. The school was opened in 1958, and Mr. Conle joined the staff in 1964. He said he has no immediate plans for all the spare time he'll have on his hands, but his wife suggested a number of things he might like to start to work on, including the garden. (Herald photo)

Halton CAS review in 1980

The Halton Region Children's Aid Society (CAS) is one of 10 Ontario societies to be reviewed during 1980 by the provincial ministry of community and social services, according to minister Keith Norton.

Mr. Norton announced last Wednesday that the comprehensive operational review will examine CAS goals, management practices, program co-ordination and financial controls.

Part of a five-year program which will see all 50 societies in Ontario studied, the review will be conducted by representatives of the societies themselves, the ministry and other social service professionals.

During 1979, 10 societies came under review, resulting in specific recommendations for improvements in services being made to the ministry and societies. When all CAS reviews have been completed, Mr. Norton will publicize a complete report.

Factors taken into consideration for the selection of societies to be reviewed next year include their regional distribution, size, complexity of operations and any absence of such reviews during recent reviews.

Other societies to be reviewed next year are in Algoma, Frontenac, Kawartha, Haliburton, Parry Sound, Simcoe-Lambton, Wellington, Metropolitan Toronto and the Metro Toronto Roman Catholic CAS.
