

Smiles from the Year of the Child

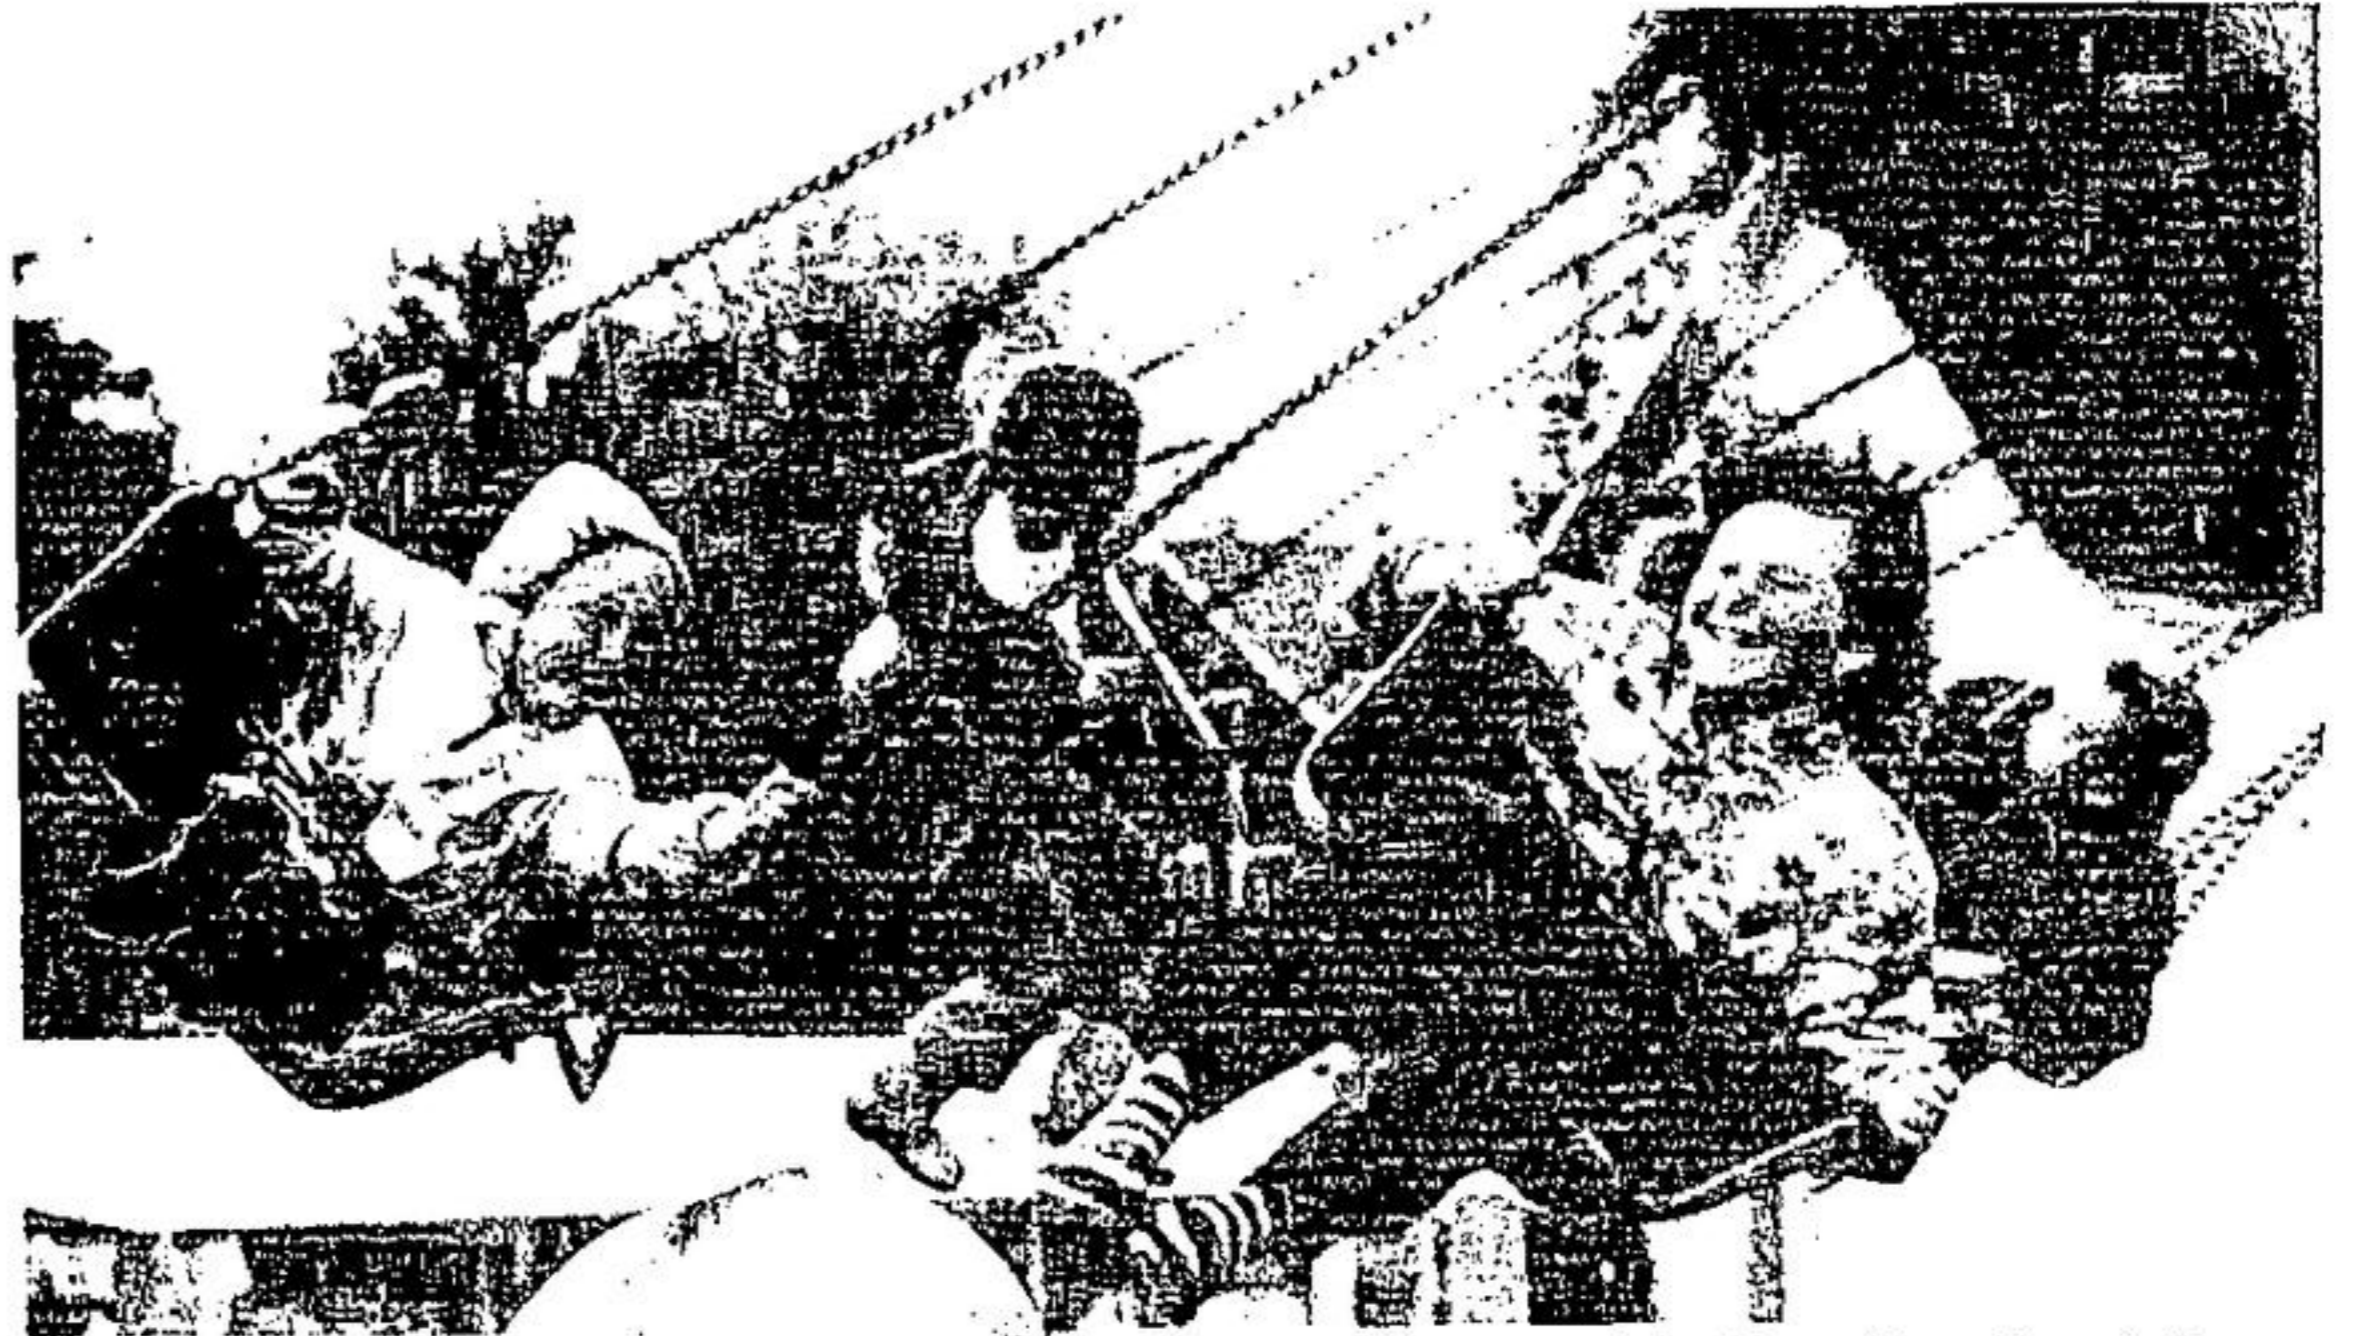

Constable Don Cousens fingerprints Michael Simpson during a visit to Holy Cross School during Police Week in May.

Jema Hagge tries out equipment at the Montessori School in Norval in May.

Georgetown's New Year's baby Teresa Emily Mercer, shown with mother Sandy, arrived Jan. 2. Teresa was the Herald's cover girl for Jan. 3.

Youngsters enjoyed the rides at Bang-o-Itama in May.

Jodi Armstrong puffs the fluff off the season's first dandelions in late May.

Linda King and 13-month-old Christopher came to public attention in early September, when government assurances were given that the province would help with the boy's oxygen treatments.

Norval 1st Scouts collect papers regularly and will resume the paper drives in the new year.

Kids enjoy the summer sun and Carolann Young is no exception. The Herald showed her having fun at Terra Cotta Conservation Area in August.

Pictures of the Jaycees skateboard competitors appeared in June during Pioneer Days.