

The three wise men stopped to rest in the house of a young shepherd and his mother in the Christmas play performed at Harrison Public School last week. The wise men were seeking the baby Jesus, and are shown here telling the shepherd boy and his mother of the gifts they are bringing for Jesus. (Herald photo)

The children from the Montessori School in Norval helped out the Good Neighbor Service by collecting a number of gifts of toys for children less fortunate than they, to help make Christmas as happy for others as they seemed to be flooding it at their own Christmas party last week. (Herald photo)

The Park Elementary School Kindergarten presented their version of Christmas in Mexico during the school's Christmas concert. The theme of the concert was the International Year of the Child. (Herald photo)

The new year brings new hope for love and caring among men and women.
May each day find us a little closer to these ideals.
