

Halton's People, 1979

They helped make this town interesting, exciting in 1979

Undertaken in late 1978, The Herald's weekly Halton's People series became a solo project last year, and thanks to staff writer Maggie Hannah, we all met some very interesting neighbors. Throughout the year, we only missed one week (Dec. 12), and only one of our 1979 Halton's People, retired high school teacher MARION REED does not appear on this page for lack of a photo. The Herald and its readers salute Halton's People.
