

A team from Detroit captured the bantam hockey tournament held here in Georgetown last March. Mayor Pete Pomeroy presented the symbolic trophy to team captain Craig Kales.

Soccer emerged as the second most participated sport in Georgetown during '79. It swelled in numbers to over 1,000 boys and girls. Here one can see the intense action that takes place in each and every game. This lady goaltender Cathy Dobson really got a kick out of the game. Too bad her opponent had to chase the bouncing ball.

Many Georgetown minor hockey teams took their fair share of the lumps during the hockey season but, always managed to bounce back in one form or another, to win in many cases. Several local teams were triumphant at the end of the last season and will be looking to do the same this time round.
