

HALTON HILLS ARTS COUNCIL

By ENID WILLIAMS

TELEVISION AND THE ARTS

The Arts Council has opened the new Year with exciting plans! T.V. Ontario presents, through the sponsorship of the Arts Council, a workshop entitled "Television and the Arts". This three-hour workshop is free through an Outreach Ontario grant from the Ministry of Culture and Recreation. Join this on your calendar! Wednesday, January 23, 7:30 p.m. at Centennial P.S. resource centre, 233 Delrex Blvd., Georgetown. Call Gretchen Day for information 877-8680.

CAMERATA

CAMERATA will be performing February 27 at Holy Cross Church. This group of instrumentalists is acclaimed to be, "refreshingly natural, relaxed, they have a sense of humor and they play with superlative skill." Camerata is making a return visit to Georgetown where they overwhelmed the audience with their excellence.

FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS

Committees are formed up to bring you a FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS in June. You will be pleasingly entertained by a performing arts presentation reflecting the dramatic and musical ability of performers in the area, together with interesting displays of arts, crafts and cultural folklore.

GEORGETOWN LITTLE THEATRE

At a recent General Meeting, this membership voted in favor of mounting a suitable production to be presented as outdoor theatre at Terra Cotta Inn, the month of July. Meanwhile, the cast and production team for "Separate Tables" is busy working towards the opening of this play late February. Tickets, Greta Lee 877-5407.

CREDIT VALLEY ARTISANS

Grace Ball will be instructor for a course, "Basic Throwing Techniques on the Potter's Wheel" to commence Mondays, January 21 through March 10. Two time slots are allocated this course, one in the afternoon, the other in the evening. Concentration will be on basic throwing techniques but some handbuilding skills shall be taught. Previous experience not necessary and students shall learn to make glazes and load and operate the electric kiln. Information, 877-7124 or 853-3331.

NORMIE STUDIO

Young people 16-21 years, here's your chance! Classes will commence March 4 on Tuesday evenings in drama studies and stagecraft skills. Experienced tutors will cover all aspects of this 10 week course. Payment of fees reasonable but please register NOW. Information 877-0702.

Normie Studio Theatre will be presenting three special performances of "Dear Liar" for Halton Hills Arts Council, April 30, May 2 and 3. For information, tickets or input, please call 877-8680 or 877-0702.

GEORGETOWN CHORAL SOCIETY

Momentum is starting to build towards the February 17 concert. The preceding evening, the choir will perform at the Oakville Centre of the Arts with the Oakville Symphony. Conductor Tony Royse will take the baton for the presentation. Music culture will once again be stimulated by the Choral Society's singing Beethoven's Mass in C Major, which will undoubtedly be another musical highlight for Halton Hills. Tickets, Barbara Ritchie, 878-3406 or any member.

The Halton Hills Arts Council urges you to make yourself known and what your group offers in the field of Arts. This is your column and what you are doing is of interest to me. Make yourself known by calling 877-0702.

GLT's hard at work on 'Separate Tables'

By LORRAINE WILLSON

Georgetown Little Theatre's next production is an interesting play entitled "Separate Tables", written by Terence Rattigan and directed by Bev Nicholas.

The play will be held in the Sacre Coeur Hall on Guelph Street, Friday and Saturday, February 22 and 23 and the following weekend, Friday and Saturday, February 29 and March 1.

An exciting aspect to this play is that this is GLT's entry into the Association of Canadian Theatres (ACT) annual drama festival. The performance February 29 is adjudication night.

This play is somewhat different than previous plays staged by the GLT because of the need for a composite set. The production crew is hard at work building the set for the play's hotel dining room setting, and the actual addition of a set onto the existing stage at Sacre Coeur hall. This addition will be used for the living room setting.

While the production crew hammers away, the cast is also rehearsing. It includes Marie Cleaton, Edna Ferguson, Ron Hill, Joyce Holland, Sheila Hughes, Jennifer Jackson, Derek Jaynes, Nicola Jaynes, Pat Jaynes, Vera Macdonald, John Roe, Val Stoddard, Ashley Windsor.
