

Norval the team to beat in playoffs

It now appears that there will be no one to challenge Norval for top spot in the Georgetown Industrial Hockey League. Sunday, their nearest rival, second place Akers-Clark was dumped 6-0. The only apparent race will be for second place in the standings where the Akers-Clark team is battling it out with the Glen Warriors and Philp Publishing. What is certain is that United Rental will end up in fifth spot and Royal Pizza will be in the basement of the six team league.

In the other games Philp Publishing beat United Rental 5-2 and Glen Warriors trounced Royal Pizza 8-1.

However, with the playoffs coming up and all teams eligible, anything can happen. Last year Norval topped the league and were defeated in the playoffs by Philp Publishing.

Norval 6 - Akers-Clark 0
Sunday Norval had no trouble disposing of Akers-Clark to keep a strangle hold on the scoring race, as well as the league lead. Ian Syme moved in front of teammate Brian Beaumont to top the individual race with a pair of goals and an assist to give him 41 points. Had Beaumont come up with another goal or assist to add to the one goal and two assists he got in that game, he would have been able to hold on to the lead. Charlie Knoepfli hung on to his position as third man on the totem pole with a goal and assist. He now has 37 points.

Bill Kirby and Dave Holmes were the other goal getters. Rick Tomkinson recorded the shutout.

Glen Warriors 8 - Royal Pizza Kings 1

The only bright spot in the Pizza Kings 8-1 loss to the Glen Warriors was that they scored a goal. At least it shows that they can put the puck in the net showing some offensive ability. Their offensive ability is about on par with their defensive skills. They don't score too many goals but, they do manage to stop a few too, keeping some losses down to somewhere near semi-respectable.

Playing in the last time slot of the morning, Sunday at 10:45, it looked like the Warriors were on an earlier war path the night before and got more sleep as they looked more refreshed and win prone. It took almost until the end of the game, 3:11 remaining, before Darren Kuchmash could put the Pizza team on the scoreboard.

By that time five Warriors had done the same thing at the other end of the rink eight times. Larry Melton popped in two at the start of the game to get the game started. Then Terry Crawford notched an unassisted marker followed by a goal each by Paul Gingras and Merel Hache. Pete Fendley came up with two more before Doug Pembleton put the final nail in the Pizza coffin.

Warriors assists went to Gingras, Pembleton, Hache, Bob Inglis, Melton, Nelson Barber, Don Richards, Jamie Hansen and Bob Hill.

The win leaves the Warriors tied for second place.

Philp Publishing 5 - United Rental 2

United Rental blew a big chance to stay in the race for second spot in the standings with a 5-2 defeat by Philp Publishing. A win for them would have left them with nine points to Philp's 13. As it is now Philp have 15 points for third and United seven for fourth.

Royal Pizza had to do a lot of hustling in Sunday morning's industrial hockey game against the Glen Warriors. However, they didn't do enough as they lost the game 8-1.

United got off to a good start shutting out their opponents in the first period, and had the same done to them. In the second they scored the opening goal of the game when Al McClelland beat the Philp goaltender. Philp replied late in the period on a shot by Louis D'Orazio.

In the last third of the game, Philp came alive and put four in the other net while only allowing one. Warren Day, Mark Falby, Roger Chapman and Bert Osborne won the game for the Warriors with their goals. Assisting on the Philp goals were Warren Day, Rick Middlebrook, Shane Lefebvre, Jim Hillhouse, Craig Fleming and Chapman.

Les Langlois was the lone United marksman, assisted by Brian Mackenzie and Ernie Schaump.

Standard product pee wees get back on track

The Standard Product major pee wees put behind them a 3-1 loss to Milton and came up with a big 8-1 win over Ancaster and a 6-4 victory over Guelph this week.

Sunday, in the game against Guelph, the pee wees got off to a quick start with three first period goals. John Barclay had a pair and Wayne Morrow a single. Stephen Marcolini, Danny King, Brent Smith and Jay Anderson got the assists. Scott Farley got the only second period goal.

Barclay from Farley and an unassisted marker by Smith won the game in the third despite three Guelph goals that period.

Things were rosier Thursday when the majors played Ancaster. Backed by the strong goaltending of Mark Bertrand, the team easily overcame their opposition. Morrow, Mike O'Brien, Barclay, Keith Rieger, Glen Leslie, Les Berry and King with two did all the scoring for Georgetown.

Assists went to King, Leslie, Marcolini, Smith, Morrow, Rieger and O'Brien.

The week had started out on a sour note with the hard fought loss to Milton. Steve Turner, from Marcolini and Mark Bertrand, was the only local able to score. The game was close even in the final minute of the game when with nine seconds left Milton put it out of reach with a goal into the empty net of the majors.
