

Blake Inglis, leaning on the shovel, a member of the 1951-52 Legion Juvenile Ontario Championship team picked up his ticket to the Feb. 12 Hockey Heritage dinner from Miracle Food Mart manager Bob Dudgeon this week. So did Legionnaires Denny Wright and Herb Arnold on the left, who were Legion assistants to the team. Roy Ward on the right, a member of the Heritage Council got them the tickets.

1951-52 Ontario champion Legion juveniles

More special guests have been added to the Georgetown Hockey Heritage dinner presentation Feb. 12. The 1952 Legion Juvenile Ontario championship team have been invited as representative of the many minor hockey teams the local servicemen's branch has sponsored over the years.

The Heritage Council and sponsor Miracle Mart will be trying to contact team members in the next three weeks leading up to the Tuesday night affair at Holy Cross Auditorium. Team members being contacted are Blake Inglis, Bud Varey, George Grasby, Butch Schenk, Dale Sedore, George McClure, Captain Carmen Maltby, George Webster, Bud Haines, Bob Rumley, Bob Anderson, Don Ford, Don Jarvey, Paul Barber, Fred Dickison, Alf Sykes manager of the team, Nick Garvin treasurer and Marsh Timber secretary. The coach Scotty Patterson is deceased. Heritage Chairman Dave Kenner says "we are working from people's memories because we do not have a newspaper story with names so we may have missed someone." He says to contact the council if such is the case.

The championship team of 1951-52 was the first team the Legion sponsored when it began running the Saturday morning hockey program that year. The team went on from winning its local division to capturing the provincial C division juvenile crown against Havelock in the best of three series. The final game was played in neutral Lindsay. In that year Georgetown had only 3,300 people.

Those members from the team, who can attend, will be joining more than 450 sports men, women and other guest celebrities expected for the Heritage Award presentation. Guest speakers will be Leafs Laurie Boschman, Rocky Saginuk and former Leaf great Bobby Baun.

Girls soccer practice cancelled

A change in the previously scheduled senior girls indoor soccer rep team practice. Originally set for Tuesday nights, it has been postponed to Wednesday Feb. 6 at Park Public School. Practice starts at 7.45.

The season will begin in May. Ladies wishing to try out are asked to call coach Lloyd Jones at 877-7004.

Pizza beaten 20-2

The best game of the week in the Georgetown Industrial Hockey League featured the Akers-Clark team and the United Rental hockey team. Akers-Clark won the game 3-2 but had a difficult time.

The close game had Doug Edwards scoring for Akers-Clark at 8:22 of the first, from Dwayne Hay. United came back in the second period to tie it at 1-1 on Andy Van Pelt's goal. Hal Hulme put Akers-Clark back in front at the end of the second.

Brian Mackenzie tied it for United in the third. Hay won the game for Akers-Clark with 5:56 left to play.

Norval continued their domination of the league with a 7-0 win over Glen Warriors. Scoring for Norval were Ian Syme and Charlie Knoepfli, both with a pair, Dave Holmes, Ray Inglis and Brian Beaumont. Assists went to Beaumont with 3, Syme with 2, Ray Inglis, Larry Peterson, Brad Butterworth, Paul Martin and Dave Holmes, and Charlie Knoepfli, all with one.

The shutout of this no-contact game went to Rick Tomkinson.

Philp Publishing got some scoring point against Royal Pizza in a 20-2 romp. Jamie Hansen opened the scoring for the Pizza team and they never saw another goal for 17 more Philp goals when Glen Shoebridge scored.

Scoring for Philp were Craig Fleming with the most goals, 5 to be exact and 4 assists. Warren Day had 3 goals and 3 assists, Roger Chapman with 3 and 2 assists. Shane Lefebvre and Louis D'Orazio had 2 goals each, with 1 and 2 assists respectively. Singles went to Jamie Hansen, Bill Kent, Jim Hillhouse, Randy Robbins, John Quackenbush, Glen Shoebridge, Mark Falby with assists to Dan Engleby, Ted Fendley, John Quackenbush 2, Brian Farrell 2, Mark Falby 3, Jim Hillhouse 3, and Bill Kent 2.
