

Bantams beat Milton, 4-3

With one more game to play this season, the Georgetown Optimist minor bantams beat their arch rivals, the Green Machine, from Milton Sunday afternoon at Gordon Alcott. The score was 4-3.

Four days earlier Mike McNiven led the Optimists to a 5-0 win at Chinguacousy. Daquano with a pair of goals led the team along with Richardson, Curtis and John Hodgson. Assists went to Fisher, Forbes, Falby, Richardson, Jones and Webster.

The team now has a record of 14 wins - 5 losses and 4 ties. Their last game, before the playoffs, is in Dundas tomorrow, Thursday.

Jeff Stevens led the team with a pair of goals, one unassisted and the other assisted by Andy Jones. Joe Richardson from Mike Daquano and Gary Robertson got another of the goals while Scott Taggart netted one alone.

Thursday before, the local team walked away with a 5-1 win over Oakville. Goal scorers were Kent Falby, Andy Fisher, Taggart, Mark Webster and John Catling. Assists went to Richardson, Tom Forbes, Danny Curtis, Paul Dobson and Stevens.

Motorcycle Ice-racing

Most of Canada's best racers will be on the ice for a show of high speed thrills and skills Feb. 2 at the Orangeville Reservoir.

Hundreds of sheet metal screws in the knobs of the tires provide incredible traction as the bikes power slide through the corners, throwing up rooster tails of ice and snow.

All the excitement of grand prix racing is there with tension filled drag-race starts, elbow to elbow dicing in the turns and flat out, nose-to-nose duels across the finish line.

So dig out your long johns and join us for a day of fun and excitement. Admission to the Reservoir Conservation area is $3 per person, children under 12 half price, parking $1 per car.

HE'S GOT STYLE. He's got grace and he's even got a win on his side. The Optimist minor bantams defeated Milton Sunday afternoon at Alcott 4-3. And the solid, if not sometimes spectacular, performance by their goaltender shown here, made it possible. The team begins their playoffs Tuesday at Memorial against Dundas.

Penalty minutes sink Royal Pizza

A costly nine minutes of penalties to Royal Pizza, halfway through the second period allowed Huff and Puffers to score five unanswered goals and go on to a 6-3 victory in Wellington-Dufferin-Halton Non Contact Hockey action last Tuesday night at Gordon Alcott arena.

Jay Adamson converted a pass from Kyle Harkins early in the first period to put Royals ahead 1-0 but, shortly afterward Kevin Calway scored from Gerry Van Der Eyken to tie the game for the Puffers.

COMEBACK

Early in the second period Jack Pignatelli scored an unassisted goal to give Royals a 2-1 lead. Two minutes later Royals' Mike Cassidy was ejected from the game and Royal played shorthanded for nine minutes. Huff and Puffers' Bernie Kent tied the game from Bill Kent and Brian Quinn before the period ended. John Kavanagh, Pat Fitzpatrick, Walter Arbuckle and Lorne Smith tallied with assists from Jim James, Stu McDonald, Dan Stone, Calway, Kavanagh and Quinn with his second of the game.

Royals' Ernie Bodnar scored from Merv McNamara 20 seconds into the third period but Huff and Puffers' goaler Fred Enge stymied Royals from that point on.

These two teams meet again tonight (Wednesday) in Acton.
