They huffed'n puffed now they're in first

Haltom Hills Huff 'n Puffers overcame an early 3-1 deficit to defeat Royal Pizza 7-5 in Wellington-Dufferin-Haltom Non Contact Hockey action Wednesday in Acton and to move into sole possession of first place in the southern division.

Jay Adamson and Rick Maloney each scored unassisted goals in the first minute and forty seconds to give Royals a 2-0 lead. Only 10 seconds after Maloney's goal, Eric Stone scored from Pat Fitzpatrick and Gerry Van Der Eyken to bring Huff 'n Puffers to within a goal. One minute later Maloney got his second from Vic Kokely to give Royal a 3-1 lead.

With less than six minutes remaining, Royals' defense fell apart and Huff 'n Puffers fired three in the net to lead 4-3 at the end of one period. Rallying were Kevin Calway from Bernie Kent and John Kavanagh. Pat Fitzpatrick from Eric Stone and Fred Buchanan, and Bill McCormick unassisted.

The Huff 'n Puffers scored twice in the second period. Bill Power from Dan Stone and Fitzpatrick again from Calway and Eric Stone.

Mark Riddell scored for Royals from Mike Marshall early in the third but, two minutes later Jim James replied for Huff 'n Puffers', from Bill Power to increase the lead to three goals once again.

Royal Pizza's Bill Reid closed out the scoring from Riddell and Ian Crichton with seven minutes left.

These same two teams play again Tuesday in Georgetown. Royal Pizza is two points back in the standings but has three games in hand.
