

Thirty-two 'elite' youth bowlers

The youth bowlers at Georgetown Bowl have finished the first step in the "4 Steps To Stardom" national championship trail. The five weeks of bowling have been some of the most highly contested, just as in the years of our many medal successes. Let's hope this 'fight' does not slacken but will intensify in desire and effort and still has yet to peak. The bantam division was high-lighted by the high game scores of Andrew Payne (9 yrs.) and Shane Curran (10 yrs.) of over 200. The high single game of 333 by Teresa Maslach in the junior division still has her competitors talking. Not to be outdone, the seniors produced their top score, a 351 single by Dwayne DeCoste with a 235 average for the eight game series.

ELITE SINGLES

The elite singles representatives of Georgetown are: in the bantams - David Hicks and Debbie Pentescio; in the juniors - Charlie Weatherall and Julie McCorry (a 220 series average); in the seniors - Grant Richardson (a 231 series average) and Roberta Burke.

The boys' bantam team is composed of Barry McLean, Brian Franks, Philip Hughes, Glen Kaiser and Mark Miller, with coach Gary Hole. The girls' bantam team is made up of: Judy Carroll, Cindy Kavanagh, Trina Bassett, Barbara Campbell and Tracie Peggie, with Shirley Chaplin as coach.

The senior boys' team: Dwayne DeCoste, Lenard

Fisher, Jeffrey Dafeo, Steve Brown and Paul Chaplin with Roger Gervais as coach.

Golden Age bowling

George Sargent had some trouble from Al Zeravlev this week in the Golden Age bowling league, but he shook it off to win three of the mens' scoring categories. Anne Nicholson was the best ladies bowler of the day with two top totals.

In the high single flat it was Sargent with 239 and Zeravlev with 232. In the ladies' section Nicholson out-bowled Ethel Hardman 204-176. Sargent won the high single with handicap 276-255 over Zeravlev. Vi Hewitt won this one over Kay Brothie 243-239.

High triple flat winners were Zeravlev and Nicholson with scores of 608 and 570 respectively. Their nearest challengers were Bob Hardman and his wife Ethel who bowled 589 and 508 respectively. Sargent and Brothie were the high triple with handicap winners. He had 689, 12 better than Zeravlev's 677. Brothie topped Hardman by a single point 668-667 in the ladies' section.

In team standings the Corner Pins remain on top with 96 points but, there were a few more shuffles in the ranks below. The following show the teams and their places in the league. Corner Pins 96, 74's 89, Blue Jays 80, Hall and Hall 77, Rolling Pins 76, Expos 72, Sluggers 72, Raiders 67, Friendly Five 65, Slow and Easy 61, Six Dolls 61.

Macovnyk rink wins

BY JUNE CARSON

A great time was had this past week by the folks who participated in the Molsons Midwinter Bouspiel which started a week ago Sunday and ended in a grand finale party held at the club on Saturday evening.

Capturing the 4th event was Wayne Taylor's rink of Frances Wild, Tony Dehueck and Marion Pickering. Winning the 3rd event was Lloyd Trimble's rink of Ellen Burns, Glen Hagerman and Sandra Lovelace. Coming up to shine in the second event was Les Ashcroft's rink of Karin Henderson, Ralph Burgess and Debbie Decroce. The stars of the Bouspiel winning all their games and capturing the trophy was Mike Macovnyk's rink of Janet McKeenan, Doug Darmody and Kathy Burt, beating Rick Kidney's rink of Norma Wilson, Bob Bruce and Rowena Wilson.

It can be a heartbreaking loss to go the entire week unbeaten until the crucial last game, but Rick Kidney's team retaliated by winning the newly organized relay race which added greatly to the spirit of the spiel. It took some fine coordination and participation on their part to obtain the distinction of having the fastest total time to 1) throw a rock landing in the house 2) throwing a dart to hit the board 3) chug-a-lugging a draft and 4) taking out the first rock. Well done folks!

Back on a serious note, Norma Wilson skipped a team at a two day Spiel in Guelph winning three out of five games to take the 7th event. Also on the team were Marg Teetzel, Brenda McMurray and Enid Muir.

Ladies, keep February 16 free for the Wee Lassie Spiel which is always a favourite.

SEE YOU ON THE ICE.
