

PWP HORSES AROUND

Tanya DeJong took time to get acquainted with the horse she rode Sunday afternoon at Wildwood Manor. Members of Parents Without Partners spent the afternoon taking part in different activities in keeping with the winter weather. (Herald photo)

It's a long way down from the back of a horse, but if you have your mother sitting right behind you and holding on tight, you should be okay. Dolf seemed to be enjoying the ride at the Parents Without Partners Snow-Bling party at Wildwood Manor on Sunday. PWP members and their families went horse-back riding, skating and took part in a number of other activities during the afternoon. (Herald photo)
