Six Dolls escape Golden Age bowling basement

Members of the Golden Age bowling league are all senior citizens but, in terms of seniority amongst the bowlers that come down each week to the one with the most pins knocked down. This week's seniority award goes to George Burt who triumphed over fellow players three times while only being beat out in the high single with handicap. Elhel Hardman had the most wins, two, of the ladies Friday afternoon.

Burt bowled a 248, 686 and 704 to win the high single flat, high triple flat and the high triple with handicap. His nearest challengers were Ken Ackerland at 235 in the HSE, Grant Real in the HTF, and George Tress with a 698 in the HTH. Ackerland's 273 was enough in the HSH to beat Burt's 254.

Hardman had a good day also. Her 234 and 286 swept the single categories for the ladies. She edged out Anne Nicholson in the high single flat. Nicholson rolled up 229 points. Kay Brochie scored 265, not enough to beat Hardman in the high single with handicap.

Nicholson came back to win the high triple flat over Hardman 564-521. Ada Locke took the high triple with handicap 696-689 over Kay Fryer.

Team standings revealed this week that the Six Dolls have finally rolled out of the basement and up two places.

The Expos also put on a surge moving up two spots. This is how they look: Corner Pins 98, 747s 94, Blue Jays 87, Expos 79, Rolling Pins 78, Half and Half 77, Sluggers 75, Friendly Five 69, Six Dolls 68, Raiders 67, Slow and Easy 61.
