What is a Kinsman?

What is a Kinsman? Georgetown's Kinsmen are individuals like yourselves: your next-door-neighbor may be a Kinsman.

RICK ARMSTRONG, past president of the Georgetown Kinsmen Club, is a service mechanic for an air conditioning and heating firm. He and his wife, Colleen, have two sons: Michael and Christopher. Colleen is a past-president of the Kinettes and serves with the Victorian Order of Nursing. A resident of Georgetown for three years, Rick has been a Kinsman for the past eight years.

RICK CRAWFORD has held the secretary's and registrar's positions with the club. His wife, Cheryl, is deeply involved with the Kinettes, serving as president for the club's 1979-80 term. A salesman, Rick, has been a resident of Georgetown for the past six years and a Kinsman for the past three. He and his wife have a son, Ryan.

RICK EARLE, a past president, has been a member of the Georgetown club for the past six of the 13 years he has lived here. A product controller, he has also served as chairman of the club's cystic fibrosis, fertilizer and Bump for Life campaigns. He and his wife, Bonnie, have two children: Christopher and Jodie.

GARY EVANS, a professional engineer, has lived in Georgetown for six years and has been a member of the club for the past three. He has served as vice-president (1978-79) and chairman of the fertilizer campaign. He and his wife, Halina, have two children: Cory Jonathan and Warren James. Halina is a registered nurse.

BRUCE GOUGEON is a firefighting captain who joined the club a year ago, serving as chairman of the blood campaign. He and his wife, Carol, have lived in Georgetown for the past four years and have two children: Leah, 14, and Danya, 12. Carol is a circulation manager.

BRIAN HUNTER, one of the club's newest members, is an account manager. He and his wife, Debbie, have lived in Georgetown for the past 1 1/2 years. Debbie is an elementary school teacher in Cambridge.

PAUL JONES, an administrative assistant with the planning department and a teacher by occupation, has been with the club for the past two years. He and his wife, Ann, have three children: Andrew, Alison and Susanne. They have lived in Georgetown for nine years.

KEITH KNAPP, a member of the club for the past 1 1/2 years, has lived in Georgetown for five years. He and his wife, Barbara, are both teachers — Keith in Bramalea and Barbara in Acton. Keith has served as a club director.

JIM A. LEIPER in the two years he has been a member of the club, has served as registrar and now, second vice-president. He is a professional engineer. His wife, Jill, is a registered nurse and a Kinette. They have two children: John and Julie.

BOB MALCOLMSON, an executive assistant and consultant for Thomson Newspapers, has been a club member for two of the three years he has lived in Georgetown. He is president of the club for the current term and has served as a committee chairman in the past. He and his wife, Marny, have two children: Heather and Megan. Marny, a bank teller, is also a Kinette.

DON MANSFIELD, a sales manager, has been with the club for the past five months. He and his wife, Bernadette, have lived in Georgetown for three years and have one child, Marla. Bernadette is a stenographer.

ROD MANTLE, a banking loans officer, has been with the club for six months. He has been a resident of Georgetown for the past 1 1/2 years. He and his wife, Joanne, have two children: Christine, 3, and Carrie Ann, four months. Joanne is a Kinette.

BRIAN MARKHAM, a dentist, has served an active two years with the club. He served as a director, vice-president and fertilizer campaign chairman. He and his wife, Karen, residents of Georgetown for the past 10 years, have a son, Stephen. Karen is a nurse at Sheridan College.

DON PEARSON has been a Kinsman for 10 years and his record of service shows it. He has served as a deputy governor for Zone 1, District 6, president, past president, vice-president, treasurer and a director. He is currently secretary of the Georgetown club where he has been a member for the past year in which he has lived here. He is a cost accountant. He and his wife, Carol, have three children: Shawn, Sheri and David. Carol is also a Kinette.

GEORGE RIDDALL, a resident of Georgetown for 34 years, has been with the club for the past six. A cabinet maker and foreman, he has served as bar chairman.

TED SAVAGE, another new member, is with the fire department. He has lived in Georgetown for the past five years. He and his wife, Sheryl, have three children: Gordon, Barbara and Diana.

ROGER SHOLDICE has been a Kinsman for the past 10 years, joining the Georgetown club in September. A branch manager with a bank, he and his family have lived here since July. Roger and Ruth have two children: Jeff and Greg. Ruth is a bank teller.

DON SMITH has served as treasurer and a committee chairman in the two years he has been a Kinsman. He is an accounting manager and has lived here for the past eight years. He and his wife, Linda, have three children: Jason, Lindsey and Steven.

BOB SWIFT, a time study analyst, was a resident of Georgetown for 13 years and has been with the club for four. He has served as bulletin editor, president, vice-president and past president. He and his wife, Linda (a former Kinette) have two children: Cindy and Duane. Linda is a registered nurse at Peel Memorial Hospital in Brampton.

PETER WORTON, general manager of a trucking firm, has been a member for two years and has served as a director and committee chairman. He and his wife, Susan, have three children: Melissa, Melanie and Janine.

NEIL YOUNG, a pharmacist, has lived in Georgetown for 31 years and joined Kinsmen two years ago. He has served as a director. He and his wife, Mary Lou, have two children: Kevin and Derek. Mary Lou is also a pharmacist by profession.

What a Kinsmen Club is not!

What a Kinsman Club is NOT: The Kinsmen Club is not merely a dinner club intended to promote good fellowship and share entertainment. Much more than this, the club produces life-long friendships as by-products to the club's ultimate objective of community service.

The Kinsmen Club is not a "secret society" and offers no secret handshakes nor mysteries, nor any internal hierarchy by which individual members are ranked.

The Club, in the final analysis, develops a spirit of kinsmanship among its members that is unique, but indefinable.
