

WELL-SPOKEN PUPILS

Mary Kehalo, librarian at Stewarttown School and co-ordinator of public speaking, stands with the winners of the Grade Eight public speaking competition, Deanna Mooring and Greg Hiscock the grade seven winner. Deanna was the overall winner of the school competition. Both students will represent Stewarttown at a public speaking contest to be held at Centennial today. (Herald photo)

New homes target for vandals

Vandals broke into some houses under construction in the River Run project and damaged a number of units.

The vandals smashed garage lights and basement windows and punched holes in the dry wall. The cost of the damage hasn't been estimated.

Dufferin Aggregates, R.R. 3, Milton, reports the theft of a set of acetylene torches and four 45-gallon drums of Esso motor oil. Value of the missing property is estimated at $325. Two complete wheels were removed from a car parked on Maple Avenue.

York Auto Wreckers in Acton reports the theft of a 7 1/2-horsepower hydraulic pumping unit valued at $1,000.

UNWANTED ICING

Friday's freezing rain saw hundreds of motorists scraping car windows, including Jean McPhall of Acton, seen here after finishing some downtown shopping preparing for the slippery ride home.
