

Skating club presidents over the 25 years gathered around the anniversary cake which had all their names inscribed in it. Left to right they are Jessie Shorthill, Ron Snow, Tony Corbett, Tom Pettingill, Bob Howard and Carol Lamb.

The lobby at Memorial arena was adorned with costumes and pictures of the past 25 years.

The pre-schoolers are usually a highlight of any skating show. These colorfully dressed youngsters stole the show.

Dave Watson is in full flight as he does a double axle in front of the presidents' box. He performed part of his routine he used to take first place in the novice men's Canadian Figure Skating Championships recently.
