

DER PS -

Saturday at Alcott 8:30 p.m.

As says...

support us!

petitiveness would probably mean a decline in attendance which actually would mean the demise of Intermediate hockey in our area. If you are not looking forward to that happening then get out and support the team.

The rewarding part of the season has been the fact that a new coach or first-year coach has been able to bring a completely new team or rebuilt team up to, or near the top of the league. I would like to wish Steve Blundy and all the players a great play-off series.

Hope to see you at the rink.
Bob Hooper,
President.

NOTES

Was Mike Wilson an oversight on our part, his additional 18 goals, 21 assists, perhaps would have been first place?

Perhaps penalties against Dundas should be declined as per NFL, as Dundas has scored one-tenth of time shorthanded and in addition have never been scored on in 100 chances the opposition have had.

What magic is there in small numbers i.e. Raiders 11 - 0.5.3 10 players.

Perhaps the OHA may overcome the Hardy Cup jinx as the season has given birth to perhaps 4 or 5 solid contenders.

Gary Ford is looking for an Ontario Championship as his midget team (Streetsville) currently leads Lindsay in OMHA 'A' semi-finals. Good luck "Fordy"!

No. 11 seems to wear the 'C' very well. Good luck Juri.

Perhaps "the big Ange" could blast his way past Dundas' Tim Ampleford, with two games left, to capture the league scoring championship.

Game winners is Tonelli's specialty leading the league with 5 this season, and Joe Ens likes the power play scoring counting 7 thus far.

Perhaps Mrs. John Boyce, Mrs. Colin Gordon and Mrs. Don Fendley will be furnishing the Raiders with future considerations. The best of luck to these expectant mothers.

John Cook seems to have found the range, firing 4 goals on Sun., Mar. 21 in Owen Sound.

The Raiders welcome Jeff to the training staff. Jeff spent the early stages of the 1979-80 season with the Oakville Blades of the Jr. 'B' league.

The Raiders by way of defeating Owen Sound clinched 3rd spot, and are preparing for post season play.
