

Norval and Glen take playoff openers

Norval managed to squeak by a fired-up Akers-Clark team in playoff action on the weekend by a narrow 5-3 effort that was aided by an empty net goal.

Akers-Clark went into an early lead at 5:30 of the first period when Reggie Neil and Doug Edward fed Wayne Doucette for the game's first goal. Grant Bodnar added one nine minutes later on a set up from Dwayne Hay to give Akers-Clark a 2-0 lead.

The lead was short lived however as Larry Peterson scored on a relay from Brian Beaumont and Razor Inglis. Bill Kirby scored the only goal of the second period to tie the game up. Assisting was Larry Peterson.

In the third period Akers-Clark went ahead again when Roy Bush struck on a pass from Hay at 10:01.

At the three-quarter mark of the period Norval turned on the jets when Dave Holmes scored with Bill Kirby standing in Akers-Clark crease. Kirby claimed he was pushed into the crease but Akers-Clark players think otherwise. Paul Martin and Doug Anderson received assists on the goal.

Charlie Knoepfli fired the go-ahead goal and also assisted on Beaumont's empty net goal at 19:44 of the final period.

In the other semi-final game the Glen Warriors dominated Philp Publishing 4-1 keeping them off the board until late in the third period when Craig Fleming scored on a feed from Bert Osborne and Bill Campbell.

Doug Pemberton opened the scoring for the Warriors in the first period with assists going to Bob Inglis and Chris Peavoy. Also scoring in the first period was Paul Gingras. Larry Melton and Doug Hillts assists on that marker.

In the second period Pemberton scored again to put the Warriors out in front 3-0. Reece Hayes and Merel Hache were credited with the assists.

Gingras finished the scoring when he replied to Philp Publishing's lone goal, 11 seconds after they had scored. Haches received his second assist on the play.

Sunday will see the Glen Warriors vs Philp Publishing at 9:15 and Akers-Clark vs Norval at 10:45 for the second games of the playoffs.

Bantams can win playoffs

When ten minutes of overtime failed to break a 3-3 tie and produce a winner between the Georgetown Optimist Bantams and their counterparts from Guelph, during the second game of their best of five playoff series Saturday, the game was left tied and the series became a six point total affair.

After Sunday's second

Georgetown win, the locals led the series five points to one. Georgetown had won the first game 7-0 Thursday. Sunday they won again 5-2 in overtime, scoring the winning three goals in the 10 minute total-goal overtime.

The Optimists can take the series with a tie or a win Saturday evening at 7:15 in Guelph.

Danny Curtis led the local team in the first game with a pair of goals with Tom Forbes, Mark Webster, Andy Fisher (2), Joe Richardson and John Hodgson adding singles. Assists went to Jeff Stevens, Hodgson (2), Mike Daquano, Scott Taggart, Tom Forbes and Gary Richardson.

John Catling, Webster and

Robertson were the goal scorers for Georgetown in the second game tie Saturday. Assists went to Paul Dobson, Stevens, Andy Jones and Mike Daquano.

Sunday, Ken Falby, Fisher, Robertson and Daquano with two did the scoring. Assisting them were Jones, Falby, Joe Richardson with two and Daquano with two.

Royal Pizza expected in finals in Wellington-Dundas-Halton

Rick Malony and Mark Riddell each fired three goals to lead Royal Pizza to a 9-3 victory over Cedar Valley in game one of the quarter-final round in Wellington-Dufferin-Halton, non contact Hockey action.

Rob McEachern gave Cedar Valley an early 1-0 lead. After that it was all Royal Pizza. Ernie Bodnar scored twice for Royals and Merv McNamara added one. Assisting were Ian Crichton and Riddell with two each.

Rick Gill, Jay Adamson, Mike Marshall, Malony and McNamara, Wayne Watson and Keith McKinnon rounded out the Cedar Valley scoring.

The second game was in Hillsburgh Sunday night and won 6-2 by Royals. Once again Cedar Valley struck first on a goal by Andy Hamilton but then Royals went to work. Merv McNamara scored twice in the second period along with Vic Kobely, Rick Malony and Mike Marshall to give Royals a 5-1 lead after two period. D. Robilliard scored for Cedar Valley in the third and Kobely struck for Royals with his second of the game. Malony added two assists with singles going to Mike Marshall and Mike Cassidy.

Erin Woods meets Chambers Texaco

Georgetown Royal Pizza and Grand Valley met in one of the semi-finals of the Wellington-Dundas-Halton non-contact hockey league last night. Erin Woods and Chambers Texaco are the other playoff match-up.

After losing to Chambers Texaco, North Halton goaltender Craig Netten will be acting as back-up netminder for Royal Pizza through a league rule which allows for a back-up in playoffs.

Royal Pizza and Erin Woods are expected to be in the championship final.

Sunday the second game will be played between Georgetown and Erin. If necessary the following Tuesday at Alcott, the third game would be played.
