Raiders eliminate Port Elgin in two

Juri Kudrasovs and Ray Tonelli scored three times each over the weekend to lead the Raiders into the second round of playoffs with a pair of wins over the Port Elgin Sunocos Friday and Saturday.

At Alcott Friday night Georgetown had to score just once in the final period to defeat the Sunocos 5-2. They added two more in that frame to make sure.

Kudrasovs opened the game's scoring for the Raiders with the help of Tonelli and Steve Lyons. Port Elgin tied it up minutes later when Dean Symons beat goaltender Peter McDuffe.

John Cook put the home team in front early in the second on a pass from Joe Ens for the only goal of that period.

Tonelli popped in the eventual winner just 40 seconds into the final 20 minutes, assisted by Lyons and Gary Ford. The Sunocos rebounded with a goal seconds later when Doug Wood found the mark.

The former captain, Tonelli, got his second of the night on passes from Ron Fogal and Kudrasovs. Bruce Ellison finished the evening's scoring aided by Kudrasovs and Mike Keeler.

Saturday night in Collingwood it was Kudrasovs with the pair and Tonelli the single. Tonelli got the scoring parade underway early in the opening stanza assisted by Peter Mara and Ens.

Kudrasovs from Ens and Tonelli made it 2-0 before the end of the first. Ens put the Raiders ahead by three when he teamed up with Fogal and Tonelli. Kudrasovs got his second, in the third, assisted by Ens and Fogal. Gary Landry rounded out the scoring from Ens.

Bob McKinnon was the only Sunocos able to beat McDuffe.

Standard pee wees meet Dundas

The Georgetown Standard Product major pee wees are set to face Dundas in the tri-county finals after putting out Brampton three games straight.

Led by goaltender Marc Bertrand, the majors came up with an all-out effort in the final game to score a 3-1 win and take the series.

Keith Rieger from Wayne Morrow, Brent Smith from Jay Anderson and Bertrand, and Dan King from Rieger and Todd Cull handled the scoring duties in the series winner.

Prospect midgets in Orangeville final

Prospect Paving midget selects advanced to the finals of the 4-Town tournament by downing a determined Orangeville team 5-2 last Saturday in Streetsville.

Shawn Zuber got the locals off to a good start in the first period when he outduelled an Orangeville defenceman for the puck. Scott Pentesco from Brad Nicolucci made it 2-0 a couple of minutes later.

The Pavers fell asleep in the second frame, but Keith Ledger was sharp in the nets for Georgetown, allowing only one goal for Orangeville, while kicking out shots labelled as sure goals.

With both teams two men short in the sin bin, in the final period, Scott Brush from Mark Palmer and Mike Sherrard put the locals two goals up. Orangeville kept the pressure on and scored again seconds later.

Like a sleeping giant awakening, the pavers finally got their act in high gear and pumped in two goals in the last three minutes to stop the Orangeville crew. Palmer from Tom Cull, then Cull unassisted on a good second effort, were the marksmen.

In another game, Streetsville eliminated Milton in an overtime session and advanced to the final against Georgetown. The 4-town tournament being hosted by Streetsville this year is being held on Saturday, March 22, starting early in the morning with Adam, Pee Wee and Bantam eliminations. The midget final pitting Georgetown against Streetsville is slated for 9:30 Saturday night
