

Philp Publishing (in white) stood up to the Glen Warriors Sunday and tied the game at two to keep it that way after a period of overtime to force another game next week. The Warriors now lead the series five points to one.

Norval in the final, wait for Philp or Glen

Rick Tomkinson recorded his second shutout of the Industrial league playoffs to clinch a final berth for the seemingly unbeatable Norval team. Their 7-0 victory over the lacklustre Akers-Clark team gave them a three game sweep of the best of five series. They were only seriously challenged in the first game of the series which they won 5-3 in a fast paced, entertaining game.

In Sunday's other game, the Glen Warriors and Philp Publishing battled to a 3-3 tie that had Philp Publishing ahead 3-1 midway through the third period. After an overtime period the score remained tied and the teams received one point apiece. A win next weekend will put them in the finals against the Norval club.

In the first game Paul Martin opened the scoring for Norval at 1:59 of the first period, on an assist from Bill Kirby.

The second period saw Norval punch in three more goals, two from Ian Syme and one from the ever-present Brian Beaumont. Syme, Bruce Lewis and Ray Inglis were credited with an assist each while speedster Charlie Knoepfli picked up assists on all three goals.

Syme picked up his third goal for a hat trick on a passing play from Beaumont and Inglis. Dave Holmes made it 6-0 on an unassisted goal at 14:38 of the period. Kirby scored the final goal on an assist from Knoepfli and Syme. The team will be idle next weekend while they wait to see if they will meet the Glen Warriors or Philp Publishing.

In that series Philp Publishing narrowly missed picking up their first win of the playoffs when a defensive lapse in the last minute allowed the Warriors to score two goals.

The Philp team opened the scoring in the first period with goals from Rick Middlebrook and Louis D'Orazio. Middlebrook and D'Orazio assisted on each others goals with Warren Day assisting in the first.

The Warriors put themselves back in the game with a goal from Reece Hayes at 15:08 of the second period. Pete Fendley and Bob Inglis provided the assist on the goal.

Day struck for Philp's third goal to put them ahead 3-1. Mark Falby and Middlebrook, with his third point of the game, had the assist.

At 19:08 the Glen Warriors started their amazing comeback with a goal from Chris Peavoy. Forty-two seconds later Larry Melton popped a goal to force the game into overtime. Fendley assisted on the last goal while Merel Hache assisted on both.

The overtime period produced no more scoring and the game was declared a tie. The two teams face each other next Sunday at 10:45 for what promises to be an interesting game.

Royal Pizza advance---

Royal Pizza thumped Grand Valley 11-2 Thursday night in Grand Valley to advance to the finals of the Wellington-Dufferin-Halton Non-Contact Hockey Association for the fourth year in a row. They will be battling Erin Woods in an effort to regain the championship that Hawaiian Tropics took from them last year, after a two year reign.

Ken Norman led the Royals scoring parade with a hat trick. Ernie Bodnar, Rick Maloney and Merv McNamara each fired two and Mike Marshall and John Packer added singles.

Mark Riddell was the leading playmaker getting four assists, Vic Kokelj, McNamara and Packer each had three and Ed Schroeder, Norman, Bodnar, Maloney and Marshall added one each.

Mark Hulme was outstanding in nets for Royals being beaten only by Jerry Auhlonnie and Mike Niedzwicki.

---to beat Erin Woods

Royal Pizza of Georgetown upset Erin Woods in first game of the best of five final in the Wellington-Dufferin-Halton non contact hockey league. Erin Woods had not lost a game all season but lost this one 6-4 against the underdogs from Georgetown Sunday night.

Rick Maloney and Jay Adamson each scored two goals to lead the Royal team. Mark Riddell and Ed Schroeder scored singles for the Pizza team. Single assists went to Maloney, Mike Marshall, Kyle Harkins and Riddell with two.

Mark Hulme, the Royal Pizza goalie played an outstanding game in the net with John Packer, Bill Reid, Vic Kokelj and Ed Schroeder playing a strong game on defence, as they often had to contend with persistent forechecking.

Second game of the final was played last night (Tuesday) at Alcott. The third game will be played next Sunday in Erin and the fourth game if necessary will be played next Tuesday night at Alcott.

Optimist bantams bow out of tri-county semis

The local Optimist minor bantam hockey team are out

After winning the first game of the best of five tri-county semi-final series over Milton last Monday 3-1, the Georgetown team went down to defeat three games straight to give Milton the series win Saturday.

Wednesday the team lost 5-0. Thursday they were defeated 6-1, with Mike Daquano from Gary Robertson getting the lone goal.

Saturday Milton won 7-1 with Andy Fisher the only marksman, from Jeff Stevens and John Hodgson.

Scoring in the first game were Mark Webster from Dan Curtis, Daquano from Tom Forbes and Fisher, and Forbes from Fisher.

The minor bantams will also be participating in a tournament in Sudbury this weekend as well as the international.
