GEORGETOWN DECORATING

George Bergsma
George Bergsma has operated the Georgetown Decorating Centre on Main Street for over seven years.
Mr. Bergsma offers a large selection of Glidden paints and numerous brands of quality wallpaper.

"I'm in the business of supplying color and color co-ordination. When people come into the store we try to help them with their home decorating problems. I believe that this store carries enough stock to satisfy the majority of household needs and tastes."
Mr. Bergsma has over 300 books of wallpaper samples to make selections with 75 per cent being imported from Europe and the USA. He also carries a certain amount of floor covering.
Mr. Bergsma employs three other people, including his wife, Shirley.
The Bergsmas live on Maple Avenue and have lived there for 15 years. Mr. Bergsma is originally from the northern part of Holland and met his wife here in Canada. They have five children.

FONG'S RESTAURANT

Guy Tse
Yong's restaurant at 109 Main Street South is owned by Guy Tse. Mr. Tse is originally from the Caribbean area and has been living in Canada for the last eight years.
When he first moved here, he lived in Toronto for a year and then moved to Georgetown to open Yong's, his first restaurant.
Mr. Tse says that "combination plates" are the restaurant's specialty. Combination plates range from $2.75 to $4.25 and include a wide variety of dishes. For those who like Chinese food these plates allow you to sample many dishes at a reasonably inexpensive price.
The restaurant also sells North American food and has a take out service and delivery. There is a ten per cent discount for those picking up orders over $9.00.
Mr. Tse employs seven people full-time and part-time. He and his family live over the restaurant on Main Street.

KENTNER'S PHARMACY

Frank Kentner
Kentner's Pharmacy wasn't always a drug store. According to Frank Kentner his store used to be a harness shop back in the days when the Old Bank was the Bennet House, a hotel.
Mr. Kentner has been in his present location since 1947 and served his apprenticeship at Rob's Drug Store, which is now Young's. The store not only sells cosmetics and prescription drugs but cameras as well. Photography is one of Mr. Kentner's many hobbies.
Mr. Kentner maintains that the chain stores have not affected his business.
"As the town grew, it increased my business overall. You see I offer a service that is not available in the chain stores and that is important to many people," he says.
When he is not in his store, Mr. Kentner can be found outside gardening, fishing or golfing. He lives on Main Street south near Maple with his wife and children.
