Miller wins MVP and Hillock

Terming this their "turn-around year" Blaine Hillock, public relations man for hockey's Junior B Gemins, went on to credit the team's success this year to the two freshmen on the team. Coach Tom Daley and assistant coach, manager Chris Milne got the nod at the annual Gemini banquet held Friday night at the Legion.

"This team will win tournaments and league championships before the decade is out," Hillock contended.

Bob Girwood, team president, said he had trouble choosing the player of the month for February when he and the executive sat down to try and decide. However, Girwood said it became obvious that "the whole team played well in their last month" so it was the entire team that received the Player of the Month award.

Mayor Pomeroy told the dinner gathering that Georgetown could be proud of the Gems and that they "represented the town well in 1979".

Larry Robbins, the team's newest sponsor, presented Herb Kewley with the Most Improved Player award.

Robbins said he was pleased to have the opportunity to sponsor a team that consists entirely of gentlemen.

Bob 'Zeke' McCandless presented the MVP award to Brad Miller. He commented that he had never worked with a finer group of fellows. Miller also won the new M.C. Hillock Memorial Award chosen by his fellow players as the player who best exemplifies fellowship, leadership and sportsmanship combined with talent.

The Executive of the Year Award went to Bob Tost, Bob McCandless and Blaine Hillock.

Chris Milne, centre, assistant Gem coach, handed out the hardware to two deserving players Friday night. Herb Kewley, left, received the most improved player award and Miller picked up the MVP and best Sportsman award.

United Fire Safety peewees had one chance to do-or-die

Last night was do or die for the United Fire Safety Minor Pee Wees. The local shinny club had just one chance to capture the tri-county championship.

Their series with Brampton was tied at two games going into the final. Earlier the teams had split wins and losses.

Brampton won the opener 5-2, with Pat Braund from Mike Hurley and Mark Howie getting the first of the local goals. Howie from Braund accounted for their other.

Georgetown bounced back in the second game with an 8-1 win.

Howie led the scoring parade with three goals. Neil White had a pair and Danny Kent, Hurley and Braund popped in singles. Assists went to Mark Pries with three, Dean Irvine, Brian Doherty and Mike Teetzel with two and Sturg Stevens, Chris Hodgins, Howie and Braund singles.

During this game the United Fire Safety team was assessed four extra penalty minutes over the allowed limit, which constitutes a one game suspension for coach Harold Gilmer. Unknowingly Gilmer went ahead and coached his team to a 5-0 win in the third game. This brought on a protest from Brampton resulting in Georgetown having to default the game. That put Brampton in a position to win the title in game four.

Scoring in the third game were Howie with two goals and two assists, Braund with two goals and one assist and Hurley with one goal and two assists.

Sunday in Brampton the Georgetown minor pee wees tied the series to force last night's deciding game, with a convincing 6-1 thrashing.

Doing the scoring were Hurley with two and Kent,

Doherty, Hodgins and Howie coming up with single markers. Assisting them were Pries, Jon Hammer, White, Braund, Hurley, Kent and Doherty.
