

Midget team wins tri-county

With just 10 skaters and one goaltender, the Label Masters midget hockey team won a tri-county title this past week in Bramalea.

Playing against Chinguacousy, the local team lost the first two games of the best of five series and facing elimination rebounded to take the next three games and the championship. The first two games were 3-2 and 5-3 losses for Georgetown but were followed by 4-3, 4-3 and 5-2 wins.

After finishing the regular season in fourth spot, the team had been plagued with the regular problems like absenteeism and bickering which are associated with teenage players in any sport, the midgets came on in the playoffs. They defeated Dundas in four games, winning three games to one to win the first series then put out Burlington in the same number of games.

Coach Eric Stone said the team played fantastic hockey. "They played like gentlemen in the final series. They had the talent all along."

It isn't always quantity but quality that wins. The Georgetown midgets proved that when they won the tri-county championship over Chinguacousy this past week. Winning team members are, left to right, front row Geordie

Adams, Barry Stone, Shane LeVre, Jeff Waterworth, Anthony Oram, Dave Norton, and Jamie Smith. Back row, coach Eric Stone, Jocelyn Boucher, Rivy Kennedy, Steve Cawker, Ken Ward, Kelvin Hackett and manager Ken South.

the HERALD

Sports Week

Centennial wins meet

If Centennial Public School wrestlers continue to do as they did Saturday, by winning their invitational meet for the seventh year in a row, pretty soon no one will want to come. It could spell the end for the eight-year tournament.

The host school's 'A' team captured the nine-team event easily with 178 and-a-half points. Their nearest rival, from Bilas Carmen, had only 70 points, with Rolling Meadows accumulating 57 and-a-half and Centennial 'B's' 54. Also competing were Humberview McCrae, Holy Cross, St. Fidelis, Lincoln Heights and Centennial 'C'.

Centennial wrestlers won seven firsts in their weight classes, five seconds, four thirds and five fourths.

First went to Mike DelGuidice, Derek Roy, Brian Stone, Mike McInven, Chris Ferguson, George

Osborne and Gary Morrow. Second place finishes were had by David Power, Wayne Morrow, Mike Gopsill, Joey Hamilton and Ken McDonald. Finishing with thirds were Stephen Roy, Larry Taylor, Steve Power and Rod Deforest. Fourths went to David Taylor, Ricky Middaugh, Eddie Middaugh and Cam McIver.

Also competing for Centennial were Gord Savage, Rick Succie, Darren

Strachen, Mark Dykun, Gary Last, Hal Barton, Charlie Weatherall, Neil Smith, Brian Doherty, Pat Hipp, Kevin Hunter, Rick McGregor, Rick Ward, Jon Hammer, Robin Higgins, Rod Wilson, Brent Higgins, Scott Taggart and Nick Parker.

Several Centennial wrestlers will be competing at the Ontario Bantam championships to be held at GDHS Saturday.

Baseball's back, Page 41

'Eye got it'

James Watt was in fine form Saturday during the Norval table tennis tournament. Although he didn't win, he did show plenty of determination.

Gymnastic Jill wins a first

The Halton Hills Jills gymnastic team will be hosting an Ontario Gymnastic Federation (OGF) meet Sunday at the Georgetown high school from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

This past Saturday six team members competed in a West-Scarborough pre-competitive invitational meet. Placing first on the parallel bars was Jennifer Arnold in the eight and nine-year-olds category.

In the 10 and 11-year-old division, Lisa Greenly balanced her way to a third on the beam while teammate Kendryn Hutt was fifth on the same apparatus and Christine Schirk was just behind, in sixth.

Elaine Easdale and Lisa Graham also competed but, did not place in top six.

Sunday April 27 another group of pre-competitive girls will be travelling to Orangeville for the Lions International meet.

Girdwood returns as Gem Pres.

Bob Girdwood is back as president of the Georgetown Gemini Junior B hockey club for his second term. The hockey club, the town and the minor league players can be thankful for that.

Part of the reason for the resurgence of the team this year, from the doldrums of last place in the league last year, is due in much part to the man at the top. Girdwood's return to the job, at the club's annual meeting this week, will assuredly speed the further development of the team into a more legitimate contender in their mid-Ontario league.

The president's drive and determination, combined with the other dedicated people in the community minded team, helped the team to break even for the third year in a row this season. However, the team is still operating at a deficit which the club incurred four years ago.

Ice rental, referees' costs and transportation were all up this year but, an increase in attendance which resulted in a $1,500 jump in gate receipts, helped to offset these costs and balance things out for the year.

Still outstanding are some ice time and the team's annual year-end banquet.

The 1980-81 board of directors for the team will be comprised of Girdwood, Grant Isaacs, Shirley Simpson, Bob 'Zeke' McCandless, Ron Chatten, Bob Tost, Norm Lockhurst, Blaine Hillock, Bob Thompson, Jim Mackie, Doug Harlow, Dean Taylor and Bob Wray.

Team executives are president Girdwood, McCandless first vice president (VP), Lockhurst second VP, Hillock secretary and Simpson treasurer.