

Track and field season began at GDHS this week with students getting out to tone-up for the coming competitions. Here, above and below, these two get in a little sprinting and hurdling.

Work on the Glen Williams Ball diamond, which suffered greatly during the Spring runoff on the Credit River, got some needy repairs this week by volunteers who will use it this summer.

*The weather
hasn't been
the best
these days but,
these people
don't care*

These young swingers got in some early practice at Cedarvale Park this week, before the North Halton Golf course opened on the weekend.
