TOWELS 'N' THINGS

Sandra Greig

This is Sandra Greig's fourth year of operating Towels 'n' Things, a store with accessories for almost every room of the house. Towels 'n' Things has bathroom accessories, kitchen accessories, towels, bedding, goose-down comforters and accessories, decorative fabrics and wall coverings, and stuffed animals for children.

Other items in the store include soaps, cards and gift items.

"With Mother's Day coming up, we have plenty of gifts," Mrs. Greig said.

The boutique also has a bridal registry where brides can register for their patterns.

Mrs. Greig said the goose-down comforters are becoming an increasingly popular item as energy-conscious people turn their thermostats down. People want to keep warm without paying extra on their hydro bill for an electric blanket, and while comforters are expensive in the beginning, they prove to be cheaper in the long run, she said.

Towels 'n' Things offers personal service to its customers and will often order items in for people who can't find what they want in stock.

"A lot of our items are specially ordered because we haven't got room for them in the store," Mrs. Greig said.

She operates the store herself much of the time, with the assistance of Nell Pachlok and Mrs. Sproule.

THE LINGERIE BOUTIQUE

Betty Monchamp

The Lingerie Boutique has grown since owner Betty Monchamp first opened the store two and a half years ago. The boutique started out in the Old Bank building, featuring only lingerie, but has since moved to larger quarters at 99 Main Street South, and has expanded its stock to match.

The new location, with its larger floor space, has allowed Mrs. Monchamp to expand her lines to include sportswear, cruise wear, dresses and swim wear.

"We specialize in trying to please our customers with personalized service," Mrs. Monchamp said. "We do alterations, and we order in items that we don't have in stock. We work hard to keep things affordable, and to keep the quality up."

"That's one of the advantages of a small store, because there's nothing more frustrating than going into a store and not having someone to wait on you. I think that with clothing being relatively expensive, you have the right, not only to have quality clothes, but to have good service in the store."

Mrs. Monchamp has two women who assist her in the store, Kim Haliburton and Ann Kennedy. The store is open Tuesday through Saturday.

NORTH HALTON SPORTS

Judy Pomeroy

Pete and Judy Pomeroy opened North Halton Sports 12 years ago in the spot where Georgetown Decorating is located. Mrs. Pomeroy says she can't remember the exact date when they moved to their present location, but "it's been a while".

North Halton Sports supplies almost every sports-related item there is, from clothing to equipment to the trophies and ribbons for the winners.

The store stocks skates and hockey equipment, skis, bicycles, some camping equipment, fishing tackle, swimwear, tennis and squash outfits, t-shirts with almost any crest on them, team jackets and uniforms and almost every kind of ball.

The store also sells hunting and bicycle licences, and repairs bicycles and skis.

Mrs. Pomeroy has been operating the store herself since husband Pete became mayor of Halton Hills a year and a half ago. She is assisted in the store by Chris, Julie and Alex full-time, and by Jill and Bobby, who work part-time.

Mrs. Pomeroy said she likes to remind people that North Halton Sports is open Mondays through Saturday, because many people aren't aware the store is open Mondays.

"Service is a big thing here," Mrs. Pomeroy said. "We try to help everyone find what they need, and if we haven't got it, we'll order it."
