Jays, Rockets and Hustlers in three-way tie for first

This week saw some exciting ball being played in Limehouse leaving the Ballinafad Blue Jays, Indusmin Rockets and the Limehouse Hustlers in a three-way tie for first with six wins and two losses each.

On Tuesday, June 10, the Limehouse Hustlers shut out the Limehouse Rocks thanks to the pitching of Brad (Ram) Deforest who struck out 13 batters and allowed four hits.

The bats of Dan Porter and Ken Starkey did most of the damage for the Hustler team. The Hustlers got their win with two six run innings with only one away. Joe Pereira played a good defensive third base for the Rocks and Brian Moore went two for four at bat. But, it wasn't enough as the final score was 14-0 for the Hustlers.

In Wednesday night's game, the Indusmin Rockets had a big win over the Petrohaul Oilers with a score of 20-5. Dave Murchison played a strong second base and went one for three at bat. Doug Ferguson went three for four with a pair of singles and a double. Jim Case and Joe Scott of the Oilers both went two for four at bats besides holding down their positions.

Thursday night's game was a real zonk, and Mel Bailey got it. How's the eye Mel? Blue Jays took the win.

In the on-again, off-again, on-game Sunday morning, The Blue Jays took the win over the Rocks with a score of 14-10. Dave Grec, short-stop and Bob Schofield, centre field, both went four for five at bats and each crossed the plate three times for their team. Blake French went four for four.

Gord Thompson for the Rocks hits three of the four times he was at bat and all the other Rocks made it to first base at least once.

In an exciting game between the Oilers and the Hawks the final outcome was a draw. Rod Ried, Bern Scherle and Cob Johnston were the heavy hitters for the Hawks. Peter Rumley of the Oilers played an excellent game in right field as well as contributing at bat, going two for three.

Joe Scott also helped in the effort going two for four with three RBI's. Spike Scott played an outstanding second base

The Limehouse Hustlers were downed by the Indusmin Rockets in a game that belonged to the Hustlers until the bottom of the seventh when they allowed four runs to cross the plate. Barry Dempsey with a triple brought home Rob Campbell and Steve Hulme. Barry and Dave Murchison counted the remaining two runs. In the fourth inning Steve Scott of the Hustlers hit a single and went on to steal second and third, and home to count for the first run. Brad Deforest hitting a double in the eighth counted for the second run. The pitchers, Brad Deforest and Rob Campbell, struck out 29 batters. Brad allowed six hits and had 13 strike-outs while Rob struck out 17 batters and only three hits. Rockets moved into first place with a 4-2 win.
