

VPs transferring

The Halton Board of Education has announced the transfer of two Georgetown vice-principals to rural schools in the Acton area this fall. Guss Elliott will leave Centennial to become vice-principal at Speyside, while John Kavanagh will move from George Kennedy to Limehouse.

CVCA annual report

Closed by a memorial notice commemorating the contribution of the late Les Doby, former mayor of Acton, the 1979 annual report of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority became available recently. Before recording "the death of a friend and fellow worker in the field of conservation" (Coun. Doby was one of Halton Hills' two representatives on the Authority at the time of his death last June) the report details Authority accomplishments in a variety of areas throughout the river watershed. Highlighting the booklet are photos of Authority projects, conservation activities and one "nostalgia" picture showing MPP Bill Davis touring the Belfountain park in 1959, several years before he became Ontario's premier.
