

BOWL-A-THON BUCKS FOR HWP

The Georgetown Lionesses presented a cheque to Michelle Corney of Halton Women's Place at their meeting last week. Evelyn Fisher and Lena Connors presented the cheque for $1,700, which came from the proceeds of the club's Bowl-a-thon, held in May.

Wedding bells ring for Karen Wickson

By MRS. JOHN BELL BODDY
Herald Correspondent
That cupid fellow with his bow and arrow has been around our village again and selected a pretty maiden up the Seventh Line, Karen Wickson, who is being married in July.

The end of school draws mixed reviews. Poor Mom will miss her morning snooze.

Dear teachers on the other hand,

Have six weeks in a rest home planned.

Oh, what is so rare as a morning in June with windows wide open and lawn mowers in good tune.

On the evening of June 13, a community shower was held for her in Hillcrest Church, the hostesses, Mrs. Fred Nurse, Mrs. R. Alexander, Mrs. J. McNabb, Mrs. R. Cox, Mrs. J. Bird and three young ladies, Susan Alexander, Marilyn McNabb and Carolyn Bird, had decorated so prettily with flowers and paper streamers. A short program of old favorite songs and humorous readings were given, then Karen and her attendants were called to front and seated in decorated chairs, where they opened the many lovely and useful gifts.

The bride was very touched and with tears of happiness, thanked everyone for making the evening possible. We all wish Karen and Paul a long and happy married life. Congratulations and all best wishes to Donald McClure and his bride Laura Lee McRobert, who were married in Cook's United Church, Mount Brydges, June 21.

School is out, so all you motorists out on the roads keep a look-out for children on bikes. No matter how much telling they have been given, they still might forget and dart in front of your car.

UCW tries tastes, sights of Japan

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
Alma Sinclair was hostess to the June meeting of the U.C.W. held in the basement of the church.

This meeting was most interesting as the theme was on the country Japan. The roll call was 'bring a Japanese article'. These were on display. Many of the women were dressed in garments native to the Japanese style of dress. The devotion prepared by Reta Shortill, was given by Alma Sinclair.

Joanne Stevenson had the topic, a film on Japan was shown, also a talk on their customs and religion. Eileen Brown, Martha Lewis and Joanne Stevenson were in charge of the lunch. Tasty Japanese food had been prepared and served by the three, assisted by the hostess.

July and August are holiday months for the organization. There was a fairly good crowd at the Sunday School picnic held at Blue Springs Camp. The open air church service got underway at 3 p.m. following that, there was races and games enjoyed by the young folk. The highlight of the event was the picnic supper enjoyed by all.

Our neighborhood W.I. branch to the west of Ballinafad Coningsby W.I. celebrated their 75th anniversary this past weekend.

They had special guests to mark the occasion, six members of the Coningsby W.I. in England. Many events were planned in the short time they had here (just one week), the biggest event being the bus trip to Niagara Falls, Thursday.

Four Silverwood W.I. ladies and two from Ballinafad accompanied the Coningsby group which made a full bus load. They started the trip from Brisbane school. Supper had been prepared by the Badenock W.I. This was followed by a short program.

On the way to the Falls, there was a stop over at the Erland Lee Home for the group and one at the Experimental Farm at Vineland. The trip was enjoyed by all. Coningsby had arranged a banquet Sunday as part of their celebrations. The English guests leave today (Wednesday).

A recent visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson was a friend from Dundee, Scotland. He was Alister Thompson, who spent a busy weekend visiting friends and other members of the Jamieson family.

Leo Jamieson celebrated his birthday Sunday by visiting with daughter Susan, and her husband at Camilla, Ont. Margaret enjoyed the visit with Leo. We offer congratulations to Mr. Jamieson and wish him many happy returns.

The Ballinafad women have just completed a quilt, which was set up in the recreation room at Reta Shortill's home. This is the fourth or fifth quilt which has been completed, in succession at Mrs. Shortill's home. The U.C.W. and the W.I. organizations certainly appreciate this fine gesture and the hospitality shown by Reta in the sharing of her home for so long a time.
