In loving memory of Daisy Willis who passed away June 28th, 1979. The winters are longer and colder. The summers seem shorter. And there doesn't seem to be any spring or fall. As the end grows near. The months become more depressing. The elders become bitter & the younger become fonder. Now the end has come. The elder gives a sigh of relief. Tears of sorrowful pity fall from the young. But a feeling of everlasting love Comes from the fondest one. — Love the Willis family Grandchildren & Great grandchildren
