

DOWNTOWN GEORGETOWN

where friendly service and good value come together . . .

THANK YOU.

The Merchants of Downtown Georgetown would like to thank our patrons in Halton Hills for making PIONEER DAYS the most successful event in recent times.

We would like to express our gratitude to everyone who made it a success, and special thanks to: Wilfred Leslie, Bert and Elwood Carney for displaying their fine steam engines; Spencer Wilson for his car and Bill Weir for displaying the Georgetown Firefighters Association restored fire engine; Mrs. Joan Rollings for the Credit Valley Conservation Authority display; Erla Brittain for the fine antiques from the Halton Region Museum; Mr. Jack Pemberton, Al Chamberlain and crew from Choice Lea Farms for their fine horse and carriage display.

Burns Transport and Murt Allison Farm Equipment provided excellent stages for great entertainment by Paul Barber, Earl Burt and Marlon's Band, The Pine Valley Squares, The Georgetown Little Theatre Group and The Dolly Varden Revue.

We would like to thank the Halton Hills Fire Department, The Georgetown Volunteer Ambulance Service, The Georgetown West Girl Guides, The Rotary Anns, The St. Georges Ladies Auxiliary, The Jayettes and the Knox Junior Congregation.

Special thanks also to five fine judges of the 'Old Tyme' Costumes — Mrs. Edyth Peck, Mrs. Doris King, Mrs. Alex Spitzer, Mr. Jim Goodlet Sr. and Mr. George Burt.

To John McDonald, Murt Allison, Hugh Campbell, Neil from Neil's Music, and Mac Herrington and Bob McBride from Halton Hills Hydro a big thank you for your special contributions.

We would like to say as well, that it was our pleasure this year to work with the Halton Hills Art Council and the Georgetown Horticultural Society.

TO ALL OF YOU, OUR SINCERE THANKS.

Goodlet's

Brian Goodlet

GOODLET'S, a family business owned by Jim, Doug and Brian Goodlet, is located near the corner of Main and Mill Streets, next to the Bank of Commerce.

This business was opened in 1945 by Jim Goodlet Sr. and was initially known as Goodlet's Economy Hardware, a name maintained until 1970, when the three sons took over the store.

Jim Sr. started the business next door to its present location in 1937 as a grocery store known as "Budget Groceries", until 1945, when he went into hardware. Originally, the hardware business was owned by Jack Reid until he sold to Jim Goodlet.

The line of goods carried has expanded from straight hardware to appliances, furniture, hardware, giftware and garden needs.

Barb, Doris and Sheila, wives of the business trio, help regularly in the running of the GOODLET enterprise.

Known for their goodwill and friendly rapport with the public, the owners of this well-established store contribute effectively to the business community in downtown Georgetown.

Georgetown T.V. Clinic

Dieter Schulz

GEORGETOWN T.V. CLINIC, owned by Dieter Schulz, originally opened at the corner of Wesleyan and Main Streets in August, 1979.

Mr. Schulz is originally from Germany, where he was trained in the field of electronics, a trade he's always worked in happily. He received his masters degree in electronics from technical college in Germany and emigrated to Canada 18 years ago.

Mr. Schulz has been giving authorized factory service for 10 years on all Sylvania, Philco, Fleetwood products, a service applicable to items on warranty. GEORGETOWN T.V. CLINIC also services all makes of television, stereo and audio equipment and sells Philco and Sylvania products at competitive prices. All service is done by Mr. Schulz in the store.

Mr. Schulz is interested in training an electronics apprentice on location. A golden opportunity for sure; anyone interested may apply for this training programme by dropping in the store.

A good selection of A-1 re-conditioned television sets with 90-day warranties may be purchased at GEORGETOWN T.V. CLINIC. The business recently moved to another location on Main Street.

Toronto-Dominion Bank

Terry Dickinson

The Toronto-Dominion Bank, located at the corner of James and Main Streets, opened in 1966 and it is presently under the management of Terry Dickinson.

In 1973, Mr. Dickinson was appointed branch manager of the T-D downtown and since that time has observed little major growth in the surrounding area.

The development of Marywood Meadows near the hospital made some changes in trade activity downtown and, more recently, the opening of the Silver Creek Towers apartments has lent an optimistic outlook for more business in the downtown core.

The Toronto-Dominion has offered customers for the last two years no-charge chequing accounts on balances not less than $200, which has now been raised to $300 minimum balance. In addition to this service, T-D has a daily interest personal chequing account which gives the customer greater banking scope. The "Green Machine" card provides customers with all banking services. Although Georgetown does not have a Green Machine, you may find the nearest one at Toronto-Dominion in Bramalea City Centre. "Tuesday to Saturday banking is available at the Halton Hills Shopping Plaza," said Mr. Dickinson which services Georgetown well along with the banking hours at the downtown branch of T-D, "making six day banking in all," he explained.
