

Share a dream

Halton Cable TV will present a special six-part series entitled "How Would You Like To Share A Dream?" beginning July 9 at 7:30 p.m. which examines the Foster Parents Plan of Canada. Viewers who miss the program's debut can see it again beginning July 15, also at 7:30.

New AHS promo

The Halton Board of Education has announced the appointment of Betty Moore as principal of Acton High School, beginning in September. She replaces Wally Walkers, who is moving to Lord Elgin High School after two years in Acton.

Mrs. Moore graduated from the University of Toronto in 1954 and began teaching physical education and biology for the Halton board in 1968. She was made vice-principal of Oakville Trafalgar High School in 1975 and transferred to Burlington Central High School two years ago.
