

REC LEADERS LEARN THE RIGHT WAY

Faith Richardson gave Halton Hills recreation department co-ordinator Jennifer Linton a hand in demonstrating the finer points of "spotting" gymnastics competitors to the rec leaders who will be supervising the town's sports camps and gymnastics camp during the summer. The leaders all attended an intensive training session last week prior to the opening of the camps. (Herald photo by Lori Taylor)

CREDIT CHANNELIZATION

Channelization work has begun on the Credit River in Glen Williams. The channelization will be done for about 90 metres on either side of the bridge. Gabion baskets filled with rocks will be used to protect the river banks. The contract for this work was awarded to Ontario Construction Company. The channelization is just one step in the plan, which includes modifications to the Paper Mill Dam. It is hoped the work will prevent the annual spring flood in Glen Williams. (Herald photo)

Hillsburgh bluegrass returning July 19

Herald Special Bluegrass enthusiasts will find the fifth annual Hillsburgh Bluegrass Festival July 19 better than ever, organizers say. Roger Clark, head of the festival's organizing committee, says visitors can look for the same regular attractions they have enjoyed in the past as well as a few new things.

More than seven bands have been signed up to appear at Victoria Park. These include Tim Daniels and the Precourt Brothers, Cody, Hickory Ridge, the New County Line, the Taylor Family and the Burnt Biscuit Goodtime Band. The gospel-singing Taylor Family will be one of the new ideas since previous festivals haven't had gospel singers on the performance list, Mr. Clark said.

The Storey Dancers from Seaford, a clog dance group, will also be a new type of entertainment for the festival. Starting time has also been moved forward to 10 a.m. and the first band will be Cody, Mr. Clark says. Gates open at 9 a.m. and the festival goes ahead with or without the co-operation of the weatherman. Closing time remains midnight.

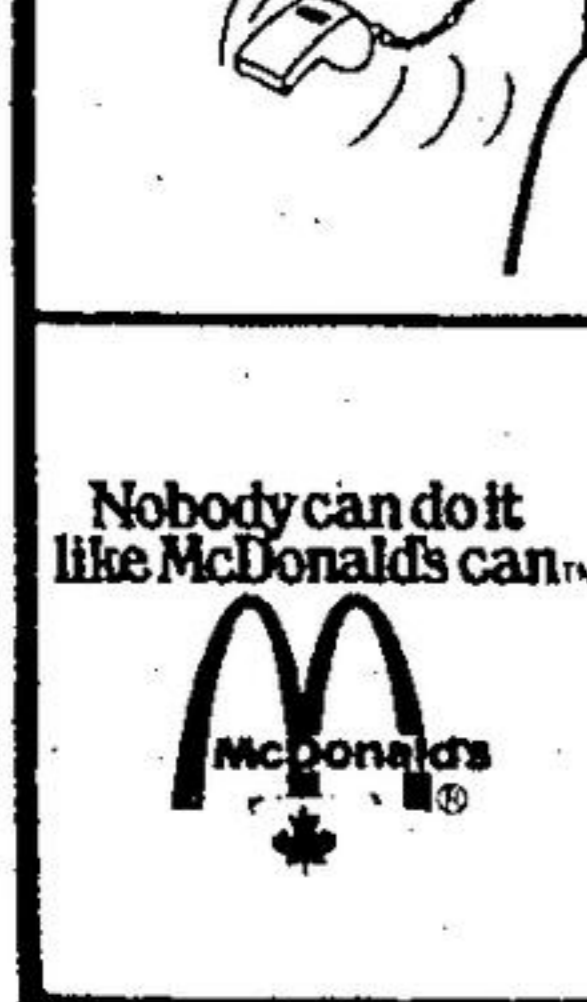

Bands will be performing on two open stages for the first time and masters of ceremonies for the day will be Joe Lewis of CJRT-FM Radio and Mike O'Reilly of Cody.

Speculators who didn't bring along enough of their own snacks to see them through the day will again be invited to enjoy a chicken barbecue during the supper hour.

Craftsmen and artisans from all over the province have contacted the committee to secure booth space so demonstrations of glassblowing, leather work and similar crafts will be part of this year's festival, Mr. Clark says. 4-H club members are setting up a corner where young visitors will be able to visit animals and pet them. The children's program has been expanded with the addition of clowns, a storyteller, a magician and puppeteer and races and games.

The Optimists Club will be running a "suds tent" offering beer for the first time at the festival. Mr. Clark stresses that an increase in security will attempt to control alcohol being brought into the festival grounds. The Bluegrass Association is tightening up on alcohol at all festivals, he says, and Hillsburgh is following its lead. Organizers are looking for 2,000 spectators this year. Tickets at the gate will be $9 for adults, $5 for students and senior citizens with free admission for those under 12. Advance tickets go for $7 from several outlets including Rutledge Music Shop, Guelph, Sherwood Music, Kitchener, Neil's Music Store, Georgetown, and Sam the Record man, Milton.

Local school staffs change with transfers

Transfers and resignations will shift old faces and bring in new ones onto teaching staffs at many Halton Hills schools in September.

Pineview Public School will lose Karen Aalto to Pauline Johnson School and Mary Hogan to Oakwood-Morden.

Mary Hurst leaves Robert Little School for M.Z. Bennett School, while Juanita Sears will be in both Bennett and Little schools instead of just Bennett.

Janet Murray goes from Glen Williams School to Wigglesworth and Judy McNeill from Harrison to Robert Baldwin.

Brookville will get two new teachers, Paul Kirby from McKenzie-Smith and Howard Weedmark from Centennial.

Dominique Marsh will come to Acton High School from Lord Elgin High School.

Paul Brisley will be joining the staff at Centennial Middle School.

Brookville vice-principal Gary Bateman is moving to George Kennedy School.

Resigning from the Halton board's staff are Barbara Knapp at M.Z. Bennett Public School, David McNally at Centennial Middle School, and Martine Lefebvre from Acton High School.

Ronald Turner, a staff member at McKenzie-Smith Middle School won't be leaving after all.
