

Safety patrol training

The Hamilton Automobile Club once again holds its Annual School Safety Patrol Officers' Training Program at Ridley College, St. Catharines, August 18 to 22.

Some 180 students will devote one week of their vacation to learn how to become captains of their School Patrols.

Twelve Police Officers from Hamilton-Wentworth, Halton, Brantford, Brant County and Haldimand-Norfolk will live with the students on campus. These officers instruct the students, during the daytime, on how to help their fellow classmates to and from school safely, then in the evening supervise a wide variety of sports and entertainment. Emergence situations are carried out on buses with powerful smoke bombs, necessitating quick and orderly evacuations.
