

DANCING ON PARLIAMENT HILL

Seven couples from the Pine Valley Squares dancing group attended a national square dance convention in Ottawa August 8, 9 and 10. More than 6,500 dancers and callers attended from across Canada, with one caller from Saudi Arabia. One of the highlights of the convention was a massive square dance on Parliament Hill. The Pine Valley Squares will be offering square dance lessons this fall, beginning with two free evenings of dance September 10 and 17 at Stewarttown Hall.

CENTRAL CAB

CENTRAL CAB is owned by Alan and Lee McMillan, who first moved to this area with Georgetown Taxi from Milton.

Mr. McMillan, originally from Streetsville along with his wife, who hails from Newfoundland, have re-established their business life at 120 Mill Street. The office sports a comfortable lounge for waiting customers who have just finished shopping in downtown Georgetown, the pulsing shopping district of our town.

LEE McMILLAN

One of the many services offered by CENTRAL CAB is the air-conditioned rides, as well as fast service on all calls, discounts for senior citizens and special rates on airport runs, as well as out-of-town journeys.

Alan and Lee have dispatched for Flash, Glen, Georgetown and Milton taxi companies from one central dispatch centre, in earlier years, before they opened their own taxi business.

Another service is pre-booked runs to the GO train, requiring half-hour notice. Special letter and parcel rates are provided on request, and car pool taxi service is encouraged to help the customer cut travelling costs, especially on runs to the airport and GO train stations.

A new name, a new image, excellent service is the package offered to the public, under the name CENTRAL CAB.
