

Halton Hills goes to the Exhibition

A white leghorn hen bred by Fred Kentner of RR1 Acton (left) was declared best bird at the Canadian National Exhibition's poultry show this month. Presenting the Sam Foster Memorial Trophy to Mr. Kentner is Gord Ridler.

Another look at Michael O'Brien and his dog, Oble, who, as reported last week's Herald, captured prizes of a silver tray and a Bulova watch when the three-year-old part Labrador won the Canadian National Exhibition's 25-metre Dog Swim in the heavyweight class. A Bulova official is seen here presenting the watch to Michael, 13, at the CNE.

Members of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 120 (Georgetown), were among the 11,000 marchers who took part in the Canadian National Exhibition's Warriors Day parade August 16, bringing the skirt of the pipes down University Avenue and into the CNE grounds.

RR1 Acton's Ron Maclean (right) was awarded the Bearer Trophy at this year's Canadian National Exhibition for entering the best Plymouth Rock hens in the fair's poultry show. Presenting the trophy is Alf Ahlers.

TOWN OF HALTON HILLS

Are you dropping your hard-earned bucks all along the highway?

Let's face it. With the cost of gasoline out of sight and at times hard to find as well, it makes better cents, and dollars too, to shop locally.

Driving all over the countryside just to save a few cents just doesn't make sense.

The small amount of money you might save may be more than eaten up by the cost of gas. Shop locally, and save time, your energy, fuel and money.

No need to roam...
the best shopping's here at home!
