MUDDY MESS

The town works staff had a bit of a problem retrieving a picnic table which had been thrown into Fairy Lake in Acton Wednesday. This bulldozer was on its way into the water to retrieve the table when it sank into the mud at the side of the lake, which had been softened up by the heavy rains on the weekend. It took two attempts with successively bigger front-end loaders to free the bulldozer. In the end, the men ended up wading into the lake to pull the table out.

Jehovah's assembly could attract 1,700

Christians Set Apart from the World' is the theme of the Circuit Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses to be held in Norval this Saturday and Sunday.

Zenny Pasternak, Circuit overseer of Jehovah's Witnesses, expects more than 200 Georgetown area residents to attend the two day gathering. In all, more than 1,700 from the Georgetown, Acton, Milton, and Oakville areas are expected to attend.

During the two day program talks, experiences and practical demonstrations, will show why this goal is desirable and how it can be attained. During the Saturday afternoon program, a number of youths will have the opportunity of expressing how they have been safeguarded from many of the problems faced by young people today. The program will highlight for youths and other family members what it means to be 'set apart from the world' and the benefits of doing so.

The keynote address, "Our Refuge Amid Increasing Dangers", will be delivered Sunday at 2 p.m. by Arthur Powley, District overseer of Jehovah's witnesses in southern Ontario. An invitation is extended to all interested Georgetown area residents.

Branch golf tourney raises $4,300 for NHAMR

Legion Lines
By Tom Elliott

Club draw winners: 459 Jack Pickett, 384 Doug Sargent, 435 George Mathison, 374 J. Hatfield, 078 Doris Clarke, 359 A. Clarke.

We have four comrades in Georgetown Hospital: J. Dickenson, S. Gisy, P. King and D. Wright. J. Bradley is in Brampton Hospital. Drop in and see our comrades or give them a phone call or send a card.

Tonight (Wednesday) Bingo will start upstairs, so get in early, since this is a popular event. Shuffleboard starts at 8 p.m. Thursday.

There are a few tickets left for the Ladies Auxiliary Birthday Supper September 13. To avoid disappointment phone Liz McNeilly (877-4991) or Doris Clarke (877-9395). The tickets are going like hotcakes.

In the Lounge, Norm Eyre will be the entertainer. Keep September 26 open for the Millionaires' Night starting at 8 p.m. at $2 a person.

The professional hockey players' golf tourney, which was sponsored by Branch 120 in June this year, raised $4,500 which was donated to the Mentally Handicapped Association by those two great hockey players, Sid Smith and Harry Watson.

The Corn Roast which was held last Saturday night had a record turn-out; the entertainment was great; the singing and dancing was excellent. It was a night to remember. No one would say what kind of corn was used, but Gib Telford claimed it was the only kind that did stick to his teeth.

Ashgrove's cattle command attention

It's September again, which means holiday time is over, but you all did have a wonderful summer with lots of memories of your good times and a golden tan to bring home. Now the fall activities will be getting underway; the Ex is over, also the Steam Show. School has started again with groans from some kids, and cheers from their moms; Fall fairs are coming; then comes Winter.

Congratulations to all the couples who have wedding anniversaries in September, starting with Jim and Isabel Carney (Sept. 4). Here's to all the others through the month.

We are all very pleased and proud to learn that Jeff Nurse judged the Holsteins at the CNE, also the McNabb family had one first, two seconds and one third on their Guernseys at the Ex. Also at the Kitchener Fair they got two firsts, a second and Jr. Champion Reservee Marilyn McNabb attended the Ottawa Fair as she holds the position of Ontario Guernsey Queen. She stayed with her sister Lois who lives there.

THE MUFFLER PRO WHO MAKES YOU FEEL MORE THAN WELCOMED.

The men who manage Thruway Mufflercentres aren't in mufflers as a sideline. If they're going to make it, they'll make it on giving you the best muffler service you've ever had.

They have to and they want to. Because they own the shop.

At an independent Thruway Mufflercentre you deal with the owner, and if you aren't more than pleased with the service, you can go right to the boss.

Things will be set right.

Add in the fact you're getting original-quality mufflers that are guaranteed for as long as you own your car and you can see why at Thruway you're more than welcomed.
