

MEMORIALS

BARKER In loving memory of a dear son, brother and grandson, Brian Barker who passed away September 15, 1972 age 5 months. God sent a little rose bud. From his garden up above. He said to watch him closely. And give him all our love. For he is very delicate. The petals soft and small. And he starts to blossom. The petals they will fall. We tended him so closely. And watched him every breath. At five months the petals fell. He closed his eyes in death. We thank thee God for sending. The rose bud soft and small. Though he has left the earthy garden. The rose still grows beyond the wall. Too dearly loved to ever be forgot ten.

About the Hills

Clubs to help police?

Halton Regional Police are attempting to organize a mass meeting of all the service clubs in the region to discuss crime prevention programs in which the clubs can take part. Police Chief James Harding said at Thursday's police commission meeting that the force hopes to outline a number of crime prevention programs to the clubs, and encourage them to participate in some capacity.

They've got films

Ever wondered about the films you can borrow at your local library? The South Central Regional Library System, which includes Acton and Georgetown, is sponsoring a day-long screening of some of its available films this Tuesday from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. Registration is $2 for the day; lunch is $4 and dinner $6. Contact Marilyn Kirkpatrick at 525-2610 or Bea Morton at 629-3611. On show are many of the 4,000 films available through the local library.

Ballots ready

Composite ballots have been recommended for council's approval by the town's general committee as Halton Hills gears up for the November 5 municipal and board of education elections. On a composite ballot, a ward's candidates for municipal and regional council, as well as for board of education, are listed on the same ticket.
