Couple discusses marriage

By WINNIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent

Jim and Mary Roe, residents of Georgetown and members of St. George's Anglican Church were welcome guests at the Ballinafad Church Service Sunday. The topic they spoke on was "Marriage Encounter". It was listened to with much interest by both old and young.

Beginning, next Sunday, Mr. Stiles will be giving a series of five sermons, entitled "Basic Christianity Beliefs", based on the Bible.

The Schwarz family also assisted with the Worship Service, Helen reading the first scripture lesson and Rene reading the second. The music selection, "Bless This House", was most inspiring as it was sung by Paul Schwarz.

Caroline Woodley and her friend Martin Sage and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rumsey all from Bristol, England are holidaying at the Smith farm for a couple of weeks. Caroline is the grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Woodley who lived near Georgetown about 40 years ago when Charles Woodley was employed by the late Dr. McCullough, who was then the owner of the farm property just on the outskirts of Georgetown.

Little Lisa Sanderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim

Sanderson is one of the area tots that takes the bus each morning to Limehouse school to join others in the kindergarten class.

The Snow family and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall attended the Snow reunion which took place this year at Lighthouse School. It was held Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McEnery returned home Saturday after a holiday in Scotland. They spent a very enjoyable two weeks, taking a tour of northern Scotland and visiting many places of interest. Leo Jamieson returned home with them but his wife Margaret has extended her visit for a while longer.

Fun Day raises $86 for Dystrophy fund

Herald Special
The Norval Fun Day Ball Tournament held Sept. 6 raised $85.74 for Jerry Lewis' Muscular Dystrophy campaign despite what organizers consider a "disappointing" turn-out of players and parents.

Ideal weather conditions rewarded those who did attend the charity event outside the Norval Community Centre.

Ron Moffatt Painting defeated A.E. LePage in the day's first baseball match-up to capture the Kirk Kraft Studio trophy for the second straight year.

In the squirt division, Maple Lodge Farms took the Len Cox Memorial trophy by defeating the R.L. Grassy team 22-9.

New to the Norval Fun Day, the Tee Ball event saw youngsters four to six years old take on each other under the sponsorship of Pine Valley Farms. All received ribbons and free pop, hot dogs and donuts.

Mothers of the competitors then became competitors themselves for a ballgame which saw the Apple Factory girls avenge their team against their nemesis opponents from Fred's Live Bait (the Worms). The Apple Factory dropped the rival Worms 11-9 to capture the Braeside Farms trophy.

With the teenagers finally on the diamond, Hollywood Tavern defeated Dunlop Insurance 12-11 to set up a final against Arjem Construction, which had edged out Carney Electric 14-13.

In the final, the Hollywood Tavern boys put it all together, racking up 17 runs in the first inning before coasting to a 19-9 victory over Arjem and thus taking home the Maple Lodge Farms trophy.

All proceeds from the day go to Jerry Lewis' fund for Muscular Dystrophy research in Canada.

Community activities have started again for the season at the centre. The Norval Neighbours are meeting there Wednesday afternoons, Cubs, Scouts and Brownies on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and yoga classes are ready to begin Oct. 1. Those interested in signing up for the classes can contact Angela De Silva at 877-4870.

Norval's teenage baseball players had a great summer with their regular Thursday night games, attracting good turn-outs nearly every night.

At one point mid-season, Dunlop Insurance was leading the Hollywood Tavern team six games to two, but by the last playing night, the Tavern boys had racked up six more games to win the new shield trophy donated in memory of David (Baldy) Cunningham.

Hayes dies

By Mrs. A.W. BENTON
Herald Correspondent

We were sorry to hear of the sudden passing of Mrs. Charles Hayes, formerly of the Sixth Line, August 29 in Toronto.

We were also sorry to hear that little Jay Lawrence of the Fourth Line was obliged to have anti-rabies shots after having been in contact with a bat a few weeks ago.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. William Martin on the arrival of a little daughter, a sister for Andrew, Sept. 9 at Peel Memorial Hospital.

We hope Mrs. Lloyd McEery will make good progress following eye surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital in Guelph Sept. 10.

Willfred Harding is undergoing treatment in hospital in Georgetown. We hope his health will improve soon.
