

Cecilia Joliffe is the owner of the new Joliffe Shoes In Leathertown Village in Acton. The grand opening of the store was last Thursday, but the store had been open for a week before that. Mrs. Joliffe and her husband have been running a shoe store in a small town on Prince Edward Island for the past five years.

Second shoe store for Joliffe family

Herald Special

The second store in Leathertown Village on Acton's Mill Street opened for business last week.

Joliffe's Shoe Store is holding its Grand Opening this week.

This is the second store for Albert and Cecilia Joliffe and their sons Lorne, Evan and Richard. The family is operating a shoe store in Summerside, Prince Edward Island, where Mr. Joliffe is stationed with the air element of the Canadian Armed Forces. Mrs. Joliffe is a native of Peterborough and the family have only been in P.E.I. for five years, she says. Prior to opening their Summerside store, Mrs. Joliffe had been in retail business.

They are looking at the store as a retirement business, Mrs. Joliffe says. Her husband has almost completed his 25 years of service. The store will carry teen, ladies and men's shoes, she says.
